Dorchester County Where History Runs Deep

There's a brand-new song celebrating Dorchester County!

Inspired by her recent move to Cambridge, 21-year-old rising R&B and soul artist

Jayla Elise

wrote "Dorchester Dreams" after meeting Director of Dorchester County Tourism Holly Gilpin at an event.
Jayla found herself moved by the warmth and creativity of the people around her. "I wanted to capture the beauty of this place - both the landscape and the people - and what it means to call this area home," she said. The song also draws inspiration from the powerful legacy of Harriet Tubman (born in Dorchester County), whose courage and determination are a constant source of motivation for Jayla.
"Living in a place with such a rich history, knowing that Tubman's legacy is part of the fabric of this county, gives me even more drive to keep pursuing my own dreams."
