Dear Santa,

2020 has been a bummer but it's finally the most wonderful time of the year! The lights are hung, the big man is dusting off his red suit and local retailers are primed and ready to host your holiday shopping excursions. We took the liberty of lounging about The Wharf for the day and compiling some suggestions for everyone on your list.

So, don that mask, be just a little Grinch-like and stay six feet away, and head out to enjoy a day of shopping for everyone on your list this season.

For the fan

ABOVE: Who wants to watch football alone? This year, parties may have been a bust but your best friend is always by your side. Outfit your pup with your team's jersey. Twinsies! Available at Faux Paws Dog Shoppe.

LEFT: Be a fan all day, every day in these fun $\frac{3}{4}$ sleeve t-shirts available at Sand Dollar Lifestyles, where you will find walls of custom college team apparel for your favorite sport fanatic.

For your favorite pup

ABOVE: Whatever you can imagine your dog needs, you will find it at Faux Paws Dog Shoppe. This season why not outfit your best friend in the finest jingle jangle accessories around. Christmas themed collars, leashes and dog sweaters abound!

LEFT: Too cool to put stick figure stickers of your kids on the back of your car? Pay homage to your pup instead! These bone shaped magnets feature a flurry of dog names.

For the tiny tots

RIGHT: You can't begin the holiday celebrations without a proper set of snuggly holiday jammies. Sand and Kisses Children's Designer Boutique has oodles to choose from.

TOP LEFT: The Minions 2 Movie is heading to theaters in 2021. Be the coolest gift giver on the block by snagging your kid a huggable Minion of their very own at the Build-A-Bear Workshop. Purchase a gift card so you can go in together and make a memory as well.

For her

TOP LEFT: You know she wants one. Those Bogg Bags tout style and functionality but let's be honest, everyone just wants one of the super cute, colorful beach totes. You can order online and wait in agony or you can stop into Bungalows and grab one or two or a ton for every beach loving gal on your list.

LEFT: Yes, we know it's not cold enough to wear Uggs on the Gulf Coast. We don't care. They are adorable and the recipient of these stylish boots will think so too! Available at Sand Dollar Lifestyles.

For him

LEFT: What grill master isn't dreaming of finding a gorgeous new Kamado Joe grill under the tree? Sand Dollar Lifestyles has them in every shape and size as well as a room full of accessories. Get your grill on this holiday season!

RIGHT: Kentucky Mist Distillery has classy and fun gifts for your guy. This shot glass and flask set makes a nice gift for connoisseurs of fine drink while the distillery's t-shirt is plain fun.

For the one who loves the Gulf Coast

ABOVE: Handcrafted ornaments are a special way to remember time on the Gulf Coast for family and friends who visit near and far. Find them, lots of them, at Fish on a Dish.

LEFT: You can't get more local than sporting J. Hardy wear along the Gulf Coast. At Sand Dollar Lifestyles you have your pick of shirts, hats, belts and more, all designed under the popular, local label. You won't find these anywhere above I-10! Show your hometown some love by giving everyone on your list a little bit of the Gulf Coast to keep with them all year long.

Stocking stuffers

ABOVE: To keep the celebration going, stuff those stockings with one of the most popular items at the Pepper Palace, Bloody Mary Mix!

LEFT: Just because socks are a necessity doesn't mean they can't be fun! Sand Dollar Lifestyles has a rack full of socks in every design you can imagine. Love Bacon? They have a sock for that. Prefer Corona? There's a sock for that. Looking for sloths donning Santa hats, drinking cocoa and climbing candy canes? Yep, they've even got that too.

Sands of Time

Hurricane Sally

In 1950, I experienced my first hurricane in Orange Beach. My Dad, Mother, brother and I moved to Cotton Bayou in July of 1949. When Hurricane Baker, the first named hurricane, was headed toward us, our only neighbors to the West said we needed to come ride out the storm with them.

Neil and Brownie Lauder and their three sons had a concrete block home up on the hill north of Neil's marina, Lauder's Landing. I remember hearing the wind blow and Neil saying he was going to check things down at the water. When he came back up, he said all the water was gone out of the Bayou. It was years later before I knew that meant the eye had passed.

I have lived through many hurricanes, but I must say Hurricane Sally wins the prize for the worst one. Water never got into my home until Ivan, 2004, and now Sally, 2020. We were not thinking Sally was going to be bad so we decided to stay. At 10:30 p.m., my son Brooks called and said Buddy and I needed to leave now. Our home had not been shaking so Buddy said we will be fine.

Thank GOD, Brooks called again, and said I am coming to get y'all. When we went down the back steps, water was already up to my waist. Neighbor Matt took us and several other neighbors on the lane to LUNA's on Canal Road.

Our neighbors to the East like us had decided to stay. About 3 a.m., Kathy texted Brooks and said all of these big boats were crashing into our yards. Some very close to our homes. At daylight, when the wind had started to calm,

Long

My house, Hurricane Baker, 1950.

Brooks said "let's go and check things out." We dodged trees and limbs on 161, water on Cotton Bayou Dr., and then saw the big boats in our yard, several very close to our homes. I started to cry but my Grandson FIN, touched my arm, and said "but Maw-Maw we are alive." I gave him a hug and said thank GOD.

I am including pictures because words cannot really describe the damage we received. We will recover. My city, and state officials have been great helping with our recovery. Our U.S. Congressman, Bradley Byrne, came here three times and was a big help.

Local historian Margaret Childress Long moved to Orange Beach from Evergreen when she was just two months shy of her second birthday. Although she did spend 12 years in Creola she has always called Orange Beach home. Margaret and her husband Buddy live in the same house where Margaret's parents lived for more than 50 years. Her dad paid $12,500 to Dr. Amos Garret of Robertsedale, her mom's first cousin, in 1949 for the 300 ft. waterfront parcel. A teacher at Fairhope Middle and High Schools and Elberta Middle School, Margaret served the island as school board representative for six years. A fisherman, hunter and farmer, her father also owned a farm in Summerdale. Sons Wesley and Brooks have turned the farm into the popular Alligator Alley tourist attraction.

Margaret has co-authored two books, "The Best Place to Be – The Story of Orange Beach, Alabama" and "Orange Beach Alabama – A Pictorial History"

Anthony Jones ... Well Worth A Visit!

Voted The Best Salon in Baldwin County

It was a beautiful summer morning when we left Fairhope, low humidity and not a cloud in the sky. We were on our way down to Orange Beach to check out a business that many of our friends have told us about, this Englishman who had opened a Hair Salon on the beach with his daughter Emma. My hair is very important to me and getting a good haircut is a must, and that is what Anthony Jones is known for and excellent hair color to boot.

We have both been very dissatisfied with the last few attempts on designing our hair to suit our lifestyles; most of the so called stylists did not take into consideration our age or understand that we both want to look great without a lot of fuss and bother.

The traffic was a bit heavy due to the summer visitors, but we arrived on time to this charming yellow and white beach house on the beach road with a fabulous view of the Gulf of Mexico. We were greeted warmly by Anthony and Emma and they ask us if we would like a cold drink or a glass of wine before he started making us beautiful.

Pam, my friend, went first since I was a little chicken after the last experiences. Anthony directed her to a styling chair and went on to explain the ten most important rules in designing a custom hairstyle to suit her. He first looked at her face shape and explained that there are five face shapes out there and told her her face shape was oval. The next was bone structure and head shape, after that was the type of her hair, the texture of her hair, then what sort of condition her hair was in, followed by the way the hair grows out of the head, plus cow licks, then her likes and dislikes and fashion. Wow! What a lot of things to get right.

So then Emma started with a relaxing shampoo and deep conditioning, then for the next 30 minutes Anthony's hands were a sea of motion, lastly a quick blow dry with hardly any fuss and presto she was finished! She was so happy and she could not believe the difference in her hair.

Now it was my turn, my hair especially in the summer gets very frizzy and dry; I have tried everything out there for my hair with no success! Anthony explained that commercial hair products are made different to professional hair products. Commercial shampoos are made of mild detergent and the conditioners are based on petroleum oil. Where professional hair products are pure and natural and give back to the hair, he also went on to say that we should all wash our hair every day and condition our hair the same.

Anthony explained that at all times our hair has to have at least 8% moisture in it the same as our skin, we should treat our hair the same way as we treat our skin, by moisturizing it every day which made a lot of sense to me, since the last stylist told me not to wash my hair every day because in her mind it would dry it out. Anthony explained to me that yes using some drug store products would dry your hair out if washed daily. After we went through the ten rules, he took me to the shampoo area and treated me to the best shampoo and conditioning my hair had ever had.

While shampooing, Emma explained to me what I should do in the morning in the shower, again stressing no over-the-counter hair products, that's why my hair is dry and frizzy. After shampooing and before conditioning, towel blot the hair because the hair is porous like a sponge, putting any conditioner on one's hair when it is full of water will not go into the hair itself, so blot it first then apply the product and leave it in while you are washing yourself. Then before you leave the shower, rinse and count up to 10 slowly and stop, just rinse the excess and no more.

After she explained to me the hows & whys, I understood. They are like hair doctors, if we listen and do what they say it works! Anthony has his own line of products and everything he used on me was his and believe me the stuff works. The cut he gave me was wonderful; I walked out a new woman and so did Pam, no more frizzes! Oh, by the way he used a great product before he dried my hair called "POTION." It is a gel with a lot of healing features with body, fabulous! I bought a bottle. Best money we ever spent and yes, we are definitely going back. He is a true professional.

Well worth a visit!

Anthony's salon is at 23175 Perdido Beach Boulevard in Orange Beach & their phone number is 251.974.1514.
