Baldwin County TIGERS

- With Andrew Davis taking over as head coach, the Baldwin County Tigers are looking to claw their way back into the thick of the Class 6A Region 1 playoff picture by building on the energy created so far in the weight room.
- Led by a mix of quiet and loud leaders like linebacker Keller Coston and defensive lineman Elisha Jones III, Davis said this year's Tiger squad will look to its seniors to lead the way on a fast, violent defense.

EAGLES

- With four junior-varsity games under their belt from last year, the Bayshore Christian Eagles will play a full varsity schedule in just the second year of the football program.
- The newest team in Class 2A Region 1 will be led once again by Hall of Fame head coach Phil Lazenby who says that while the football IQ is increasing every day, the athletes are coming in well-conditioned from the offseason.

WARRIORS

• Although the Elberta Warriors will be starting the season with heavy hearts following the loss of their teammate Avery Pickle, head football coach Nathan McDaniel said the turnaround shown by the students has been inspiring.

• On the field, plenty of key contributors to last year's efforts return with more experience and playing time and are ready to ascend into bigger roles this year.

"A lot of people preach family. Very few actually live it. But Elberta, Lillian and Summerdale, the support has been incredible for our kids. It has been very inspiring. It's been very helpful to us, to the family, to walk through this thing together and, the kids are resilient. ... To hear them laughing again and get them back in the flow of things again, it's been tough but a good thing for us."

Top storyline from every team heading into 2024 season

By Cole McNanna

2024 might be the year of the dragon, but in Baldwin County it's also the year of the experienced returner as nearly all 13 local football teams return multiple athletes who have already played meaningful varsity football.

Whether it's rising sophomore quarterbacks, like Gunner Rivers at St. Michael or Judson Harris at Gulf Shores, or established veterans in the middle, like linebackers Billy Neill from Bayside Academy and Corbitt Williams from Elberta, it won't be hard for any fan to watch experienced varsity players on Friday nights.

With the countdown to kickoff only getting shorter, Gulf Coast Media compiled the top storylines and players to watch from across Baldwin County.

Follow @GCMSportsAL on social media for immediate updates from the sidelines, and visit gulfoastmedia.com/sports for full coverage.

Starting in the northern end, the Baldwin County Tigers will look to new head coach Andrew Davis to get back into the thick of the Class 6A Region 1 shuffle with offensive weapons the likes of Ti Mims. Davis is one of three new local head coaches, but he previously served as an assistant in Bay Minette and played his high school ball at Daphne High School.

Over on the Eastern Shore, the Spanish Fort Toros are also members of the Southern Region of Death in Class 6A Region 1. This year, head coach Chase Smith will look to a group of seniors, including Sawyer Wilson, who have lived the Toro Way through and through.

Down the road in Daphne, head coach Kenny King, a former defensive lineman, said the Trojans will have the tone set in the trenches as a similarly experienced group highlighted by Marques Lambert will look to lead the way on a new turf field. They'll be searching for a second-straight playoff berth.

It's back down to Class 3A for the Bayside Academy Admirals, but that won't do much to slow down the offense led by head coach and former Auburn quarterback Barrett Trotter. A veteran bunch of defenders, including Billy Neill, will look to complement the offensive

24 LOCAL PLAYERS TO WATCH IN '24

Baldwin County: Ti Mims, Elisha Jones III

Bayshore Christian: Nate Crooms, Cyrus Dorsey

Bayside Academy: Billy Neill, Miles Uter

Daphne: Talib Graham, Marques Lambert

Elberta: Corbitt Williams, Adrian Billups

Fairhope: Jackson Robertson, Harrison Cook

Foley: Jaylon Domingue, Ty Motes

Gulf Shores: Kolin Wilson,

JaMichael Garrett

Orange Beach: Austin Beck, Logan Kruse

Robertsdale: Spencer DeAngelo, Peyton Dallas

Snook Christian: Kile Votaw, Ethan Bettner

Spanish Fort: Sawyer Wilson, Newton Gardner

St. Michael: Brody Jones, Brady Zdyb

attack.

Ready to get back to their winning ways, the Fairhope Pirates have installed a new offense to try and light up the scoreboard once again with Jackson Robertson calling the signals at quarterback. They'll be looking for a seventh trip to the playoffs in the last eight years under head coach Tim Carter.

Baldwin County's newest varsity football team, Bayshore Christian, will be playing its first full season this year under Hall of Fame head coach Phil Lazenby. Seniors like Cyrus Dorsey understand they only get one shot at a first impression and want to make it worth their while.

Riding high off the program's first playoff berth in its seventh varsity season, head coach Philip Rivers and the St. Michael Cardinals only added to the good vibes with a nearly unbeaten summer 7-on-7 circuit. Weapons the likes of Brody Jones are only getting warmed up for another breakout season.

Another new head coaching position was filled in Robertsdale where Cris Bell has been tasked with changing the attitude about football. Golden Bear seniors like Spencer DeAngelo are beginning to turn the tide and have raised expectations for this season.

Elberta head coach Nathan McDaniel said his squad is closing the gap to match the upgraded facilities made around Cobb Stadium. Proven leaders, including Corbitt Williams, have helped the team through an up-and-down summer and are ready to strap on the pads for real.

Only one season removed from the playoffs, the Snook Christian Eagles and head coach Keith Smith are heading up to Class 2A in AISA but will look to leaders in the trenches like Kile Votaw to establish the nastiness and finish every block.

Also looking to get back to their physical roots, Foley head coach Deric Scott thinks this group might be the one reminiscent of the old Lion squads from back in the day. Behind the blocking of Seth Hartleroad, Foley will look to be in the mix of Class 7A Region 1 by leaning on its discipline.

Gulf Shores' reward for claiming a Class 5A state title was a step up to Class 6A to join a Region of Death where five of nine teams have won a championship in the last 10 years. But head coach Mark Hudspeth and the Dolphins will still have Kolin Wilson, a Mississippi State commit, to consistently tote the rock once again offensively.

The last stop on the trip is also the third and final new head coach to Baldwin County as Wade Waldrop has taken the reins in Orange Beach. However, defensive end Austin Beck said it best when he said, "I'm just ready to hit people."

LOCAL CHAMPIONS RETURNING TO MAKE MORE NOISE IN 2024

Top storylines entering volleyball, cross country, swimming seasons around Baldwin County

By Cole McNanna

Baldwin County's championship programs are not limited to the gridiron as a Blue Map trophy returned with the Bayshore Christian boys' cross country team thanks in part to the individual champion, Caden Phillippi, who will return to defend his crown for his senior season.

The biggest change is on the volleyball court, however, as Bayside Academy's state championship streak ended at 21 years in the 2023 Class 6A semifinals. The Admirals were still one of four local schools recognized by the Alabama High School Volleyball Coaches Association.

Spanish Fort also reached the Class 6A state semifinals in 2023 and will be looking an eighth trip to the final four in the last nine years.

The Central Christian Saints also made noise on the volleyball court after they won their first Panhandle Christian Conference championship since 2012. Lily Wright was named conference tournament MVP and will return for her final season with Central Christian this year.

Back on the cross country course, Annie Midyett from Bayside Academy and Beck Montiel from Gulf Shores joined Phillippi in racing to individual sectional championships, and all three will return to defend their crowns.

Midyett finished fourth, just behind Catherine Doyle who finished as state runner-up, to help the Admirals claim a Red Map trophy as state runners-up. Doyle is also gearing up for her senior season this year.

At the swimming and diving state championships, three recent graduates collected gold medals as individual state champions. They were joined by seven more individuals and two relay teams in taking home hardware with podium finishes. The Gulf Shores Dolphin boys' team claimed a Red Map trophy as state runners-up.

Gavin Cobb and Gray Bias earned silver medals last year and return for one more season in the pool for Gulf Shores. Also for the Dolphins, Hope Moyers is gearing up for her junior season fresh off three bronze medals, two on relay teams and one as an individual.

From Daphne, Dane Goodman will look to defend his silver medal in the 100-yard backstroke and bronze medal in the 100-yard butterfly as a senior. Similarly, rising senior Suzanne Rainer from Bayshore Christian earned bronze medals in the 100-yard butterfly and 200-yard individual medley.

Revisiting reclassification

2024 will look a little different for some regions with a few schools on the move in the biennial reclassification of the Alabama High School Athletic Association.

Despite coming up short of a second-straight volleyball state title in Class 6A, Bayside Academy is still stepping up to Class 7A due to the Competitive Balance Factor. The Admirals will branch off with Fairhope, Foley and Robertsdale to create an all-Baldwin Area 3. Daphne will remain in a three-team Area 2 with Davidson and McGill-Toolen.

Also due to the CBF, cross country teams from Bayshore Christian and Bayside Academy will be stepping up a classification. The Eagles are set to join Orange Beach and St. Michael Catholic in being local representatives in Class 4A Section 1.

The Admirals will now be with Baldwin County, Gulf Shores and Spanish Fort at the Class 6A Section 1 level with Elberta as the lone local team in Class 5A Section 1. Daphne, Fairhope, Foley and Robertsdale are Baldwin's teams in Class 7A Section 1.

The swimming scene remained mainly unchanged following reclassification with only Gulf Shores moving up from Class 1A-5A to Class 6A-7A due to enrollment.

Foley LIONS

- Head coach Deric Scott said he thinks this year's Lion squad will be one that brings back the physical toughness tradition known at Foley High School.
- A group of tight-knit seniors will be looked upon to carry the torch now that some of the high-profile recent graduates are playing college football.

Robertsdale

GOLDEN BEARS

- The work is cut out for the Robertsdale Golden Bears, who step up to Class 7A with a 24-game losing streak. A new head coach, Cris Bell, has already breathed new life into the program, and the players have noticed the change.
- Bell said there's no magic formula to immediately erase the streak but said all the Golden Bears can control is their attitude.

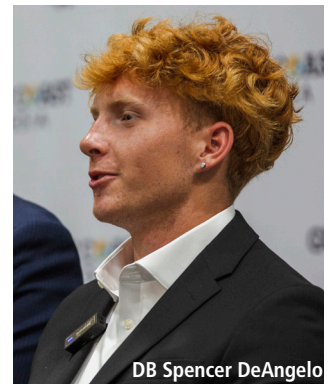

"It comes down to how hard are you willing to work. What are you willing to give up in order to succeed? We talked about it a lot this week with these guys that at some point you have to get tired of getting sand kicked in your face. ... Robertsdale could change coaches every other year, but until our actions change, until our expectations change, the results won't change."

Snook Christian Academy

EAGLES

- The largest group of upperclassmen Snook Christian has ever seen will be relied upon more than ever in 2024 as the Eagles are stepping up to Class 2A in the Alabama Independent School Association.
- Only a season removed from the playoffs, last year's 0-10 mark wasn't exactly what head coach Keith Smith was looking for. However, he's already seen a change in his Snook Christian squad.

"There's no doubt in my mind that we have improved as a team. I think we have the potential to be a very good team. ... We want to see us close the gap between us and the competition. The margin of defeat is not where it needs to be, so we want to be more competitive and be the best we can be."

- HEAD COACH KEITH SMITH

Spanish Fort TOROS

- A senior-laden group of experienced contributors is ready to carry the torch for the Spanish Fort Toros in 2024. They will be searching for the program's 17th-straight postseason berth.
- Chase Smith, a former Spanish Fort assistant, earned his first playoff victory as the Toros' head man last year and enters his third season at the helm on The Hill where he knows Class 6A Region 1 will be as demanding as ever.

LB Bishop Burkhalter

“Region 1 is going to have a lot of teams sitting at home when the first round of the playoffs hits, so that just aids to the excitement and sense of urgency. Every week you’ve got to be ready to answer that call. There’s no off week, there’s no down week, and you’ve got to be prepared, and you’ve got to be healthy and ready to go.”

St. Michael Catholic

CARDINALS

- The St. Michael Cardinals are flying home to their on-campus stadium to build on last year's first-ever trip to the postseason. Head coach Philip Rivers enters his fourth season at the helm.
- A freshman All-American quarterback, Gunner Rivers, returns with a more-experienced group of skill players out wide. The team quickly found its camaraderie over the summer and went 29-1 in 7-on-7 events, including wins in three of four tournaments they competed in.
