In the pages that follow, you will find helpful information on everything from where to grab a drink and things to do on campus to how to apply for financial aid and manage your money.

This guide also highlights some of NMSU's long-time traditions, so you can read up on what it means to be an Aggie. Show your school spirit by attending NMSU's sporting events, or snap a picture with the bronze sculpture of NMSU's mascot, Pistol Pete, featured on the cover of this magazine. You'll pass by him often on your way to and from Corbett Center Student Union.

Welcome to Las Cruces!

Plenty to do in the City of the Crosses

While Las Cruces still has a small-town feel, the city has seen significant growth over the past few years, with new bars, coffee shops and restaurants popping up throughout town. Perhaps the area that has changed the most in recent years is the revitalized Downtown, which features several bars, a used bookstore, a comic shop, theaters, museums and galleries, apparel stores and coffee shops along Main Street. It's also a prime spot for festivals, and the stage on the Plaza de Las Cruces is often used to host live music events.

In addition to Downtown Las Cruces, there is the Mesquite Street Historic District and Old Mesilla, a popular tourist attraction. And if you're the type of person who enjoys the outdoors, you're in the right place. Explore the many peaks and trails of Organ Mountains-Desert Peaks National Monument or float down the Rio Grande River on a kayak or inflatable tube.

Here are some ideas to help you get started planning your next outing:

MESQUITE STREET HISTORIC DISTRICT

For a sense of the town's history without the touristy feel, take a walk through the Mesquite Street Historic District, a colorful neighborhood filled with character. Along these historic streets you'll stumble upon parks and shops, as well as restaurants like La Nueva Casita and Nopalito and some of Las Cruces' oldest buildings. Beck's Roasting House and Creamery hosts live music from 6-8 p.m. Mondays, as well as other special events throughout the week.

WATCH THE DRAMA

If your schedule allows for a little drama in your life, Las Cruces is home to numerous theatres where you can test your audition skills or take in a show.

Las Cruces Community Theatre, 311 N. Main St., is located Downtown, and offers a student discount on tickets. This year LCCT will present classics such as "Neal Simon's Biloxi Blues" and "Nunsense." Black Box Theatre, 430 N. Main St., gives a platform to overlooked and little-known works, as well as a space for local writers to develop their projects. Scaffolding Theatre Company's is a startup theatre company co-founded by Justin Lucero of El Paso and Megan McQueen of Las Cruces. Learn more and keep up with shows at scaffoldingtheatrecompany.com. The recently formed Doña Ana Repertory Theater aims to produce shows that you wouldn't normally see locally, so follow them on Facebook for performance and audition announcements. There's also the American Southwest Theatre Company, which hosts productions at the ASNMSU Center for Fine Arts, 1000 E. University Ave.

FILM

The beautifully restored Rio Grande Theatre, 211 N. Main St., is located Downtown. It shows a variety of classic films and hosts national musicians and regional acts. The theatre will be closed for renovations beginning July 1 and will reopen in September. Call 575-541-2290 or visit riograndetheatre.org for more information. Located at 2469 Calle de Guadalupe, in Mesilla, The Fountain Theatre has entertained residents of Mesilla since 1905. Visit this landmark, enjoy the best popcorn in town (short of the kettle corn at Farmers and Crafts

LAS CRUCES FARMERS & CRAFTS MARKET

Food trucks with burritos or vegan pulled "pork" sandwiches gather on Main Street along with artisans offering beard creams and CBD salves, jewelry and art. This is the place to find both locally sourced meat, a great cup of coffee or a card featuring the Organ mountains to send back home. Local farmers offer the freshest produce from tomatoes, pecans, honey and greens to fresh flowers to brighten your dorm room. The market takes place near the Downtown Plaza every Wednesday and Saturday from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Info: farmersandcraftsmarketoflascruces.com, 575-201-3853

Market) and take in an Oscar winner or foreign film. Visit mesillavalleyfilm.org for a list of current showings.

MUSEUMS

Visit Las Cruces' many museums for a day of culture of enrichment. Downtown, you will find the Branigan Cultural Center, Museum of Art and the Museum of Nature & Science. Nearby, in the Mesquite Street Historic District, you'll find the Railroad Museum. And closer to campus is the New Mexico Farm & Ranch Heritage Museum, which serves as a venue for several events, ongoing exhibits and some special breeds of livestock. Visit las-cruces.org/1523/Museum-System or nmfarmandranchmuseum.org for more information.

FIRST FRIDAY ART RAMBLE

On the first Friday of every month, Downtown Las Cruces hosts galleries, shops, businesses and restaurants that make Las Cruces unique. 5-7 p.m. Free to the public. For information, visit facebook.com/lascrucesfirstfridayramble or call 575-525-1367.

ART OBSCURA

Part gallery, part gift shop, this quirky two-story building at 3206 Harrelson St. provides intriguing diversions and gift ideas. Featuring local artists and historic ephemera and oddities, this is a place to get lost in for a little while. Open 10 a.m.-7 p.m. Thursday through Saturday and 11 a.m.-4 p.m. Sunday, Art Obscura often hosts musicians as well as food trucks. Learn more at artobscuragallery.com.

TAKE A HIKE

Las Cruces is near several hiking trails and mountains. Try the simple hike of Tortugas (or "A" mountain) near University and work your way up to Dripping Springs Natural Area or Soledad Canyon. Hike Baylor Pass and end up at Aguirre Spring Campground. For a day trip, cruise south to the beautiful Franklin Mountains of nearby El Paso.

ROCKIN' JUMP LAS CRUCES

Rockin' Jump, 805 S. Solano Drive, features trampolines, a dodgeball arena and slam dunk zone. Open noon-9 p.m. Monday through Thursday, noon-10 p.m. Friday, 11 a.m.-10 p.m. Saturday, 12 p.m.-8 p.m. Sunday. For information, call 575-339-0005 or visit rockinjump.com/lascruces.

SHOW YOUR AGGIE PRIDE WITH NMSU TRADITIONS

CRIMSON & WHITE

One of the most basic symbols that triggers emotion, pride and a sense of identity is color, and when you're an Aggie, those colors are crimson and white.

Crimson is one of the most emotionally stimulating of all the colors in the spectrum. It has the widest depth of symbolism ranging from passion to anger. Crimson represents power, vigor, leadership and strength.

White, to many, represents purity, innocence, prestige and good. White, in many cultures, is also suggestive of the springtime and summer, the seasons when crops are planted – a key aspect of this university, as it deals with agriculture. In the education setting, white represents new beginnings.

Take a study break to visit the area's nearby attractions

The getaway you need is just a short drive away when you live in Las Cruces. Explore neighboring El Paso, Texas or discover something unique and mysterious at Meow Wolf in Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Looking for an outdoor adventure? Visit the area's nearby caverns, hot springs or gypsum sands. Check out the Outdoor Center in the Activity Center on campus to rent any camping equipment you might need!

CARLSBAD CAVERNS NATIONAL PARK

Located in the Chihuahuan Desert, Carlsbad Caverns National Park is only a three-hour drive from Las Cruces if you take U.S. 180. Hike in the underground caves by day and watch the flight of bats at night. The $10 cavern entrance fee is good for three days. For information, visit nps.gov/cave/index.htm.

HOT SPRINGS IN TRUTH OR CONSEQUENCES

Truth or Consequences, New Mexico is known for its hot springs. Journey out with your friends for a relaxing, therapeutic soak. You can reserve a time slot to soak in a private pool at most places, or you may choose to take a dip in a community/shared pool. One of the more well-known places to visit is Riverbend Hot Springs, a mineral springs resort and spa on the Rio Grande. For information, visit riverbendhotsprings.com, call 575-894-SOAK (7625) or search other hot spring properties at sierracountynewmexico.info.

EL PASO, TEXAS

Less than an hour drive away, take a day to visit the El Paso Zoo or the impressive (and free) El Paso Museum of Art. Stop by the family-friendly Rubiks Arcade Bar for walls of classic and new games. El Paso provides hundreds of culinary experiences from local landmarks like L and J Café, Lucy's or the cash-only Chicos Tacos. It isn't too hard to find something for everyone, with even Toro Burger offering a tasty vegetarian option.

MEOW WOLF

An art installation that is part gallery, party jungle gym, and several parts fantasy, Meow Wolf's House of Eternal Return, 1352 Rufina Circle in Santa Fe, is an immersive experience you don't want to miss. Tickets are $22-$25. For information, visit meowwolf.com or call 505-395-6369.

If the four-hour drive is too much for one day, consider staying in Albuquerque where hotels are affordable, and life is louder with markets and unique shopping by day and numerous show and club options by night.

VALLEY OF FIRES IN CARRIZOZO

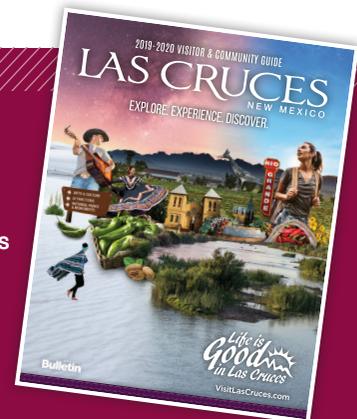

Along part of the Tularosa Valley runs the Valley of Fires, several square miles of basalt lava originating from the nearby vent known as Little Black Peak. The lava fields are reachable by driving 4 miles northwest along U.S. 380 from the U.S. 54 junction at Carrizozo, New Mexico. After a two-hour drive, take a break at the provided campsites complete with tables and grills. There's a ¾-mile nature loop trail, and off-trail hiking is possible, but take care. The mountain village of Ruidoso is 36 miles away.

WHITE SANDS NATIONAL MONUMENT

Situated 40 minutes east of Las Cruces, 10 acres of white gypsum shine with haunting beauty under a full moon. Tours are available November through April, and the monument regularly has concerts, full-moon hikes, sunset hikes and educational programming. Explore what's in your own backyard

NMSU campus offers several activities and opportunities to socialize

There are a variety of organized and under-the-radar activities at NMSU. Enjoy your down time and defeat the dull moments while making new friends at some of the following:

- Support the Aggies by attending a sports game – or getting involved yourself! Aggie athletics includes women's and men's teams for baseball, basketball, football, soccer, golf, tennis and much more. Visit nmstatesports.com for information and tickets.
- Watch big sports events or your favorite TV show in Corbett's Aggie Student Lounge or check out the Game Room, with a pool table, ping pong, foosball and air hockey.
- Grab a bite at Player's Grill. Every Thursday get an 8-ounce steak, whole Idaho potato and Budweiser, Bud Light or Pistol Pete's 1888 Ale from 3-7 p.m. every Thursday for $10.99. The Player's Grill is in the clubhouse overlooking the NMSU Golf Course, 3000 Herb Wimberly Drive.
- There are museums and galleries all around campus showcasing everything from student art to fossils. If you prefer more performance to your art, the NMSU theatre department puts on classic and contemporary plays throughout the semester, and once a month La Sociedad para las Artes, an NMSU English department organization, hosts readings featuring high-caliber writers in the Health and Social Services auditorium.
- Attend free ASNMSU-sponsored concerts at the Outdoor Stage
- Look out for corkboards around campus for more activities like Frisbee games, game nights and music lessons. Speaking

- of music, tune in to the student radio station KRUX 91.5 FM, and if you feel inspired, apply to be a DJ at kruxradio.com.
- Pick up a fishing license (find out where to get one at wildlife.state.nm.us/fishing/licenses-permits/fishing-license-vendor-list) then try your luck catching a legendary monster in the duck pond behind the Spiritual Center.
- Looking for a place to relax and mingle? Check out Pete's Patio, located on the first floor of Corbett Center, in the outdoor courtyard. With a firepit and cafe lighting, it's the perfect spot to get to know fellow students, hang out with friends or grab a drink (if you're 21 or older).

Transportation services

Your guide to getting around on and off campus

Walking can be exhausting, especially on a campus as large as New Mexico State University. Know your options when it comes to getting around.

AGGIE TRANSIT

Provides a free shuttle service to students with a valid Aggie ID. This free bus service runs from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday during the school year. With routes reaching the far ends of campus and plenty of stops along the way, the Aggie Transit offers easy transportation from any of the free parking lots. North-side buses have stops every 10 minutes. South-side buses have stops every 20 minutes. Plan bus routes here: park.nmsu.edu/transit

CRIMSON CAB

One of ASNMSU's most popular services, Crimson Cab, runs every day from 7 p.m. to 5 a.m. to ensure the safety of students by providing a safe ride. Show your NMSU Student ID, and Crimson Cab will take you and your friends home anywhere within the Las Cruces city limits. No reservation needed. Crimson Cab will also give you a ride back to your car in the morning. Crimson Cab offers services during the day to help students reach the bus station, auto shop, medical appointments or interviews. Making a reservation one day in advance is highly encouraged. Info: 575-524-TAXI (8294)

CRIMSON COACH

Crimson Coach is a free special event shuttle bus offering rides every Thursday to two different El Paso locations. Hop a ride from Corbett to Little Bit of Texas, a country bar in El Paso any Thursday at 7:30 p.m., 8:30 p.m. and 9:30 p.m., with rides returning to Las Cruces starting at 11 p.m. Or go to Cincinnati Street, a happening scene in El Paso, by taking the Cincinnati Route which runs every Thursday from the West Corbett Center

Parking lot, 8 p.m. and 10 p.m., with returning rides at midnight and 2 a.m. Students can use this service for free by showing their valid student ID.

Crimson Coach now offers a local route as well! Park in parking lot #19 or leave your car at The Game, Whiskey Dicks, The Warehouse or De La Vegas and catch a ride on the Coach route between the five stops as many times as you'd like. This route also runs on major holidays. Local routes run 9 p.m. to bar closing every Saturday night. Info: 575-646-4415.

AIRPORT SHUTTLE

By reservation only (at least 24 hours prior), Las Cruces Transportation will take any student with a valid NMSU ID to the El Paso International Airport. All pickups will either be in the west side parking lot of Corbett Center Student Union, the Ramada Palms or Hotel Encanto de Las Cruces. (For home-to-home pickups and drop-offs, the charge is $10). Students must present ID at pickup to use the free service. New students coming from the El Paso International Airport for the first time without a valid NMSU ID can present a valid photo ID (in the form of a visa, passport, driver's license or other valid identification) along with their Aggie ID number at pickup. For information and schedules, call 575-525-1784 or visit asnmsu.nmsu.edu/airport.

The Outdoor Center, located in room 108 of the Activity Center, allows students with valid NMSU IDs to rent bikes for $10 a day during the week, and $15 over the weekend. NMSU is a bicycle-friendly campus, complete with a bike shop for minor repairs. Info: 575-646-2885, recsports.nmsu.edu/bike-shop.

RENT AN ELECTRONIC SCOOTER

In January 2019, NMSU launched a new way to get around campus: electronic scooters, owned by the Ford Motor Company, Spin. Riders must use the Spin app to rent the scooters, and the cost is $1 per ride plus $0.15 per minute. For information, contact spin@nmsu.edu.

PARKING ON CAMPUS

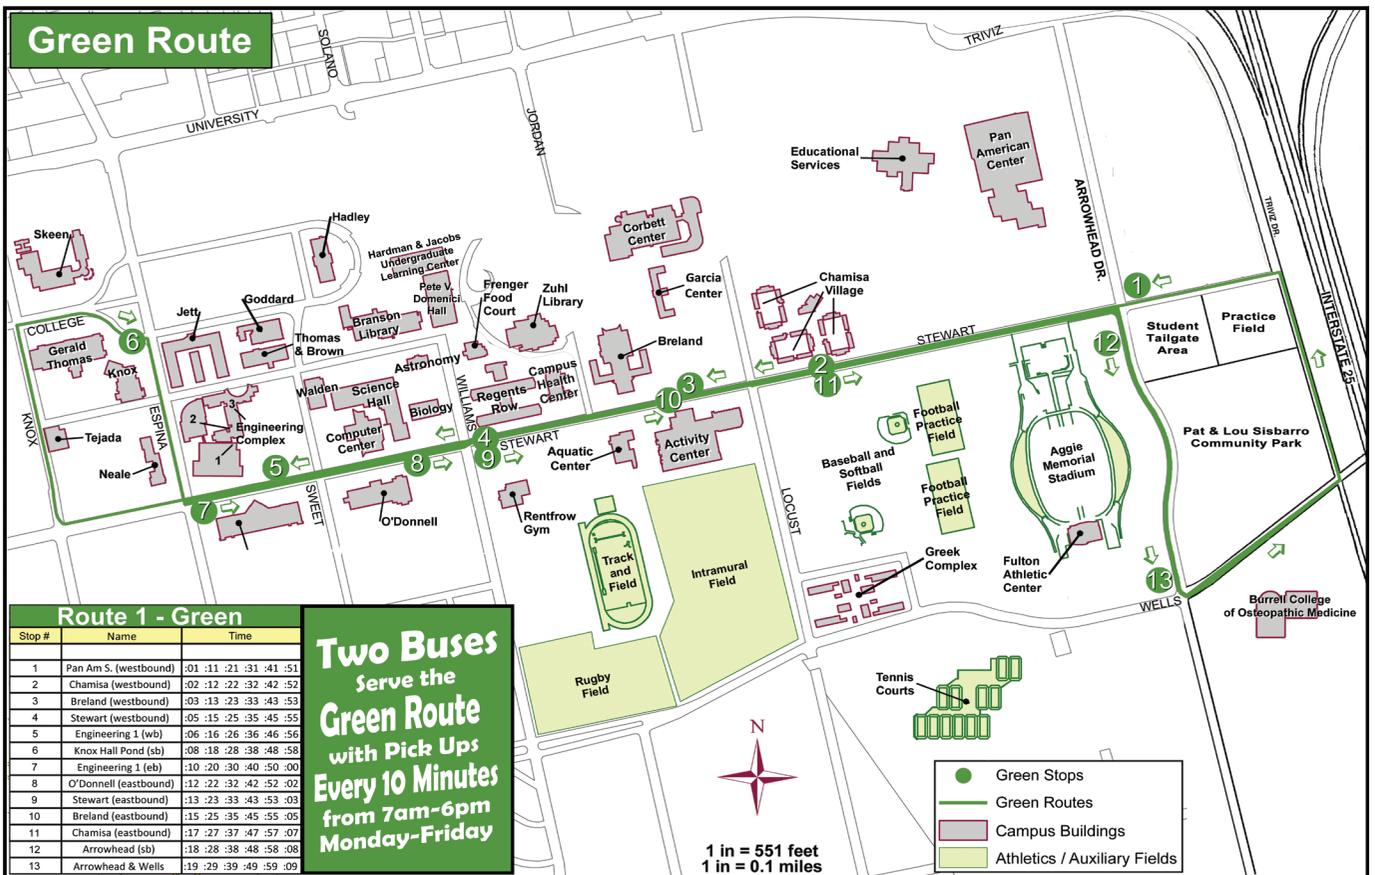

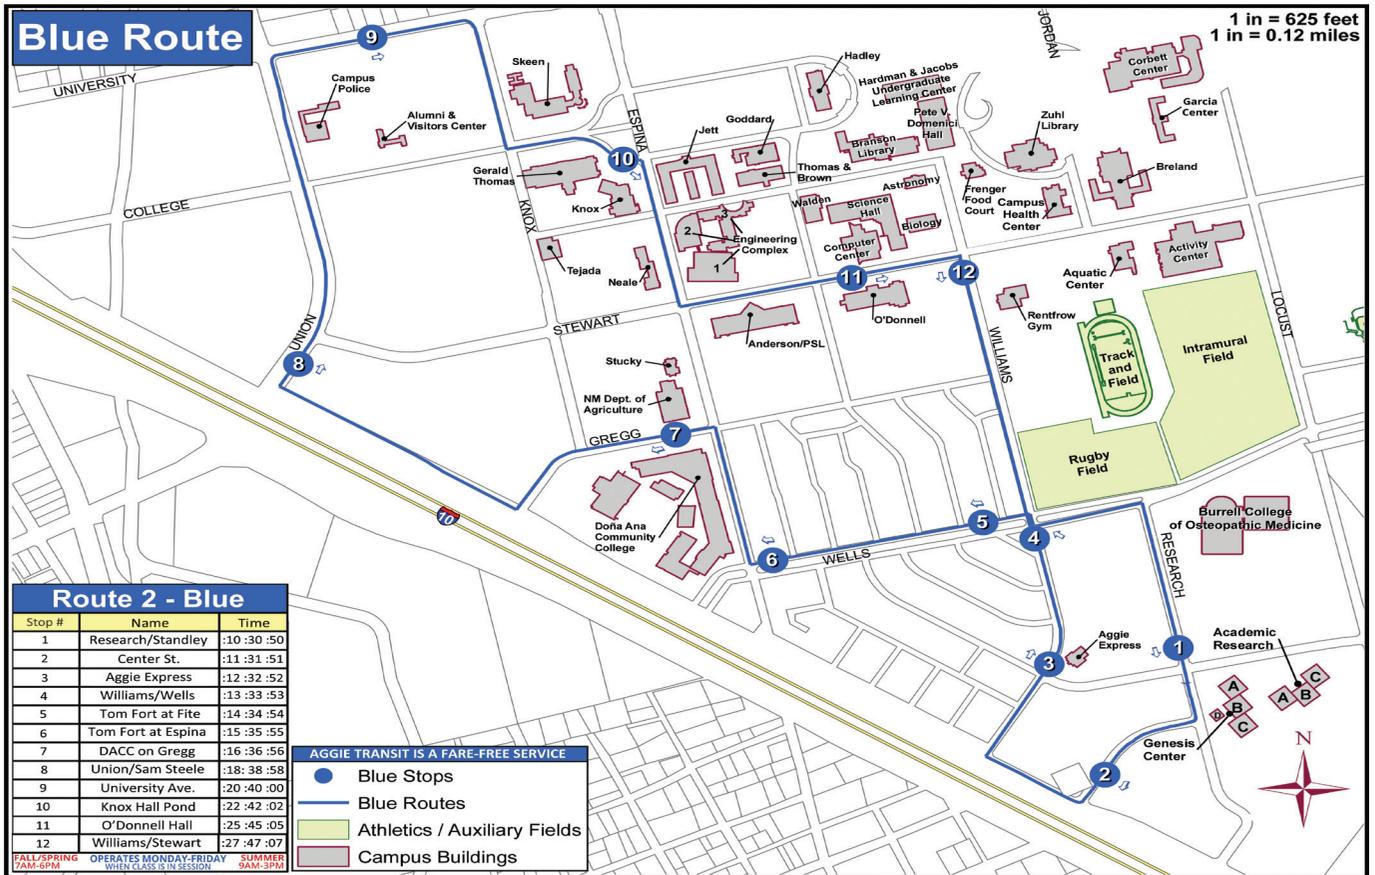

Students can buy parking passes or pay parking citations online (you'll need your student ID number) at the Parking Office website, or at the Parking Office next to Barnes & Noble, 1400 E. University Ave., from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Your parking pass will have a color indicating which parking lots you can use. The lots will have signs with corresponding colors. Find the perfect place to focus

Plenty of study spaces on campus and nearby

You won't be short of study spaces at New Mexico State University. From its libraries to its scenic campus landscape, there are plenty of places to hunker down and prepare for your next quiz or final with minimal distractions. And if you're looking to get away from campus for a while, there are several nearby coffee shops and diners ideal for study groups or solo sessions.

Use some of the suggestions below to help you get started finding the perfect place to focus.

IMAGE BY PRESSFOTO / FREEPK

ON CAMPUS

- Zuhl Library: 2911 McFie Circle. Communal and cubicle computer lab on first floor, abundant seating and desks on second and third floors. Groups can also check out rooms on the upper floors.
- Branson Library: 1305 Frenger St. Extensive science library with study areas in the lobby, and tables and chairs with beautiful views of campus on the third and fourth floors.
- Corbett Center Student Union: Use the Aggie Lounge on the first floor or rent a study room with your NMSU ID upstairs. These rooms have computer hookups to wall-mounted TVs. Or simply enjoy the cushiony seating area on the second floor. Pete's Place is also nearby, if you need to print something.
- The duck pond/surrounding park: Who needs an ambient sounds app when you can sit beside ducks and listen to the splash of the occasional fisherman's catch? There are plenty of benches and shade near the pond as well as an outdoor study area complete with USB ports beside the nearby speech building.
- Gerald Thomas Pond: It's hard to feel stressed when sitting in the company of sunbathing turtles. Come to study or to take a quick break from it all.

OFF CAMPUS

- Milagro Coffee Y Espresso: 1733 E. University Ave. Grab an espresso shake and hit the books! Whether on the patio, the main room couches or enjoying the chill ambiance of the back room, you probably won't be the only student there. Hours: 6:30 a.m.-8 p.m. every day. Info: 575-532-1042
- Spirit Winds Gift Source and Coffee Bar: 2260 S. Locust St. Unique gifts and cards to peruse during breaks, with a full range of coffee products and a daily food menu. Open from 7 a.m.-7 p.m. Monday- Friday, 7:30 a.m.- 7 p.m. Saturday, 8 a.m.-6 p.m. Sunday. Info: 575-521-1222
- Village Inn: Order some pie and settle in. This classic diner, 1435 S. Valley Drive, is close to campus and open until midnight for those late-night group project meetings.
- IHOP: Whatever hour you decide to study, stack your books by a stack of pancakes. Open 24 hours, and just across from campus at 351 E. University Ave.

STUDY TIPS

- Don't be afraid to ask professors for help or clarification, but you don't need to wait until the last minute! If something confused you, review your notes after class and ask your professor for clarification.
- Take breaks every hour; walk around or do some light exercise.
- Although repetition helps with memorization, people learn in different ways. Find what works for you. Practice quizzes with friends. Try Rainy Mood and other music sites designed to help you focus.
- Reach out for extra help through the Student Success Center.

Academic advisers help you stay on track

Course catalogs and managing a schedule can be overwhelming. An academic adviser can help you make educated decisions regarding your academic schedule and class choices as well as your long-term career goals.

The most important aspect of advising is making sure the classes you take fulfill your degree and/or the university's requirements. By the time you graduate, you'll have mastered the Star Audit system, accessible via your MyNMSU account, but the audit might initially be difficult for a student to interpret. Your adviser should be well-versed in doing so, and they will be able to help you balance required classes as well as some of the fun courses NMSU offers.

WHO NEEDS ADVISING?

All students are encouraged to receive advising at least once a semester. New and second-semester freshmen and transfer students, undecided or exploratory students, student athletes, "pre" majors (e.g. pre-nursing, pre-social work), students with less than a 2.5, and students whose GPA is less than required for their designated major requirements will have academic advising holds.

Advising holds are put in place to ensure that you have an opportunity to meet with an adviser. To avoid an advising hold, meet with your adviser or department. If you aren't sure if you have an advising hold, you can find out through your my.nmsu.edu account. Click "Student Records," and then "View Holds." From there you can find out if and why your account is on hold.

HOW TO MAKE AN APPOINTMENT WITH YOUR ADVISER

Students may make an academic advising appointment online at advising.nmsu.edu/staff, by phone at 575-646-2941 or in-person at Garcia Center between 8 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday or 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday.

Phone appointments: Academic Advising appointments are available for online and distance education students via scheduled phone appointments. Non-distance education students do have the option to set up phone appointments under special circumstances. Call 575-646-2941.

Canceling/rescheduling: Advising appointment space is limited so show up for your appointment. If you need to cancel or reschedule your appointment, use the cancellation link in your appointment confirmation email or call the Center for Academic Advising and Student Support front desk at least one hour in advance.

A full list of college and departmental advisers can be found online at advising.nmsu.edu.

NMSU TRADITIONS

Victory Bell

In the 1940s, the Victory Bell, a gift of the class of 1939, was housed in an open-sided structure on the Horseshoe and rung to announce Aggie victories. In 1972, the bell was rededicated as the NM State Engineer's Bell and now sits at Aggie Memorial Stadium. On game days, various school organizations take turns toting the ringing bell around Las Cruces prior to kickoff. The bell then sits at Aggie Memorial Stadium waiting to give off a triumphant chime.

Get legal advice on campus

If you find yourself in need of legal advice, the Associated Students of New Mexico State University (ASNMSU) has a licensed lawyer on staff with whom you can discuss any legal problems.

Karl Rysted is licensed in Oklahoma and New Mexico, and can render legal advice and, in rare instances, court representation for students. You have already paid for his services through student fees, so Rysted will meet with you for an hour free of charge. If, after the consultation, you think you need further legal representation, Rysted can provide private attorney referrals.

Employed by ASNMSU, licensed attorney Karl Rysted cannot advise you on issues dealing with ASNMSU or NMSU since it would be a conflict of interest, but he can help you with numerous other legal concerns, such as landlord/tenant issues and constitutional law.

Student Legal Aid will need to know the reason for your visit before you go in, so download their intake sheet at studentlegalaids.nmsu.edu. Everything you say is confidential. The student legal aid office is located on the second floor of Corbett Center, room 205. For information, call 575-646-4419.

NMSU TRADITIONS

The 'A'

One of NM State's most cherished traditions is that of the "A." For generations, the "A" has been emblazoned on many items, buildings and landmarks, boldly signifying Aggie pride.

The most popular and visible "A" is an annual NM State tradition – the painting of the "A" on Tortugas Mountain east of campus. The "A" stands 330 feet tall, roughly the length of a football field.

On-campus counseling offers a safe space to share your feelings

The transition to college life can be both exciting and overwhelming. With new friends, new courses – and in some cases, a part-time job – life can quickly turn into a balancing act, which can be stressful. If you find yourself feeling isolated, depressed or just need someone to talk to, a counselor can be of great benefit to your mental health.

The Aggie Health and Wellness Center provides free and confidential services to NMSU Main Campus students. These services include group, individual and couples counseling with licensed counselors and psychologists. Their qualified staff is there to assist students with crisis, mental health, personal growth and well-being issues.

Services are available at the NMSU Counseling Center in the Campus Health Center on the corner of Breland Drive and Stewart Street.

IF YOU ARE EXPERIENCING A CRISIS

If you don't have an on-campus counselor or you feel you must speak to someone outside of your scheduled appointment, you are welcome to go to the health center and request to meet with the on-call counselor. You will be asked to fill out some brief paperwork. Typically, you will be able to meet with the counselor almost immediately afterward. See need-to-know phone numbers on page 47 for other local and national resources you or a friend might need.

Tips to manage stress

- Play on: Studies have shown playing calm music can reduce the hormone linked to stress, so give your eyes a break from chemistry homework and enjoy some music history. Laughter is another stress reliever, so watch an episode of your favorite sitcom, listen to a comedian's podcast, or call that friend or sibling who can always put your stress in perspective.
- H2O and Vitamin D: Our basic needs are often the ones we ignore. Make sure you're getting a little sun, fresh air and plenty of water. Don't overdo it with sugar or caffeine as this can make your anxiety feel worse and lead to energy crashes. Take a shower or a nap. Your body deserves a little maintenance, so take yourself for a run around the duck pond or a dip in the campus pool.
- Take it Easy (on yourself!): College is hard. Life is harder. You are a champ for getting out of bed this morning. So you didn't finish the extra credit assignment, or you had to cut back on your hours at work to keep up with your classes. It's okay. While saying affirmations in the mirror isn't for everyone, you can talk back to the voice in your head when it's being a jerk and tell yourself "I've got this." Or try a guided meditation like one of these provided by the Aggie Health and Wellness Center, wellness.nmsu.edu/guided-meditations.
- Speak up: Relationships are important to our mental health. Don't bottle up negative emotions. Whether it is roommates, friends or teachers, assertive and thoughtful communication can help you express how you feel, avoid miscommunication and gives others the opportunity to help you sort it out and stay on track.
- Ask for help: The NMSU Counseling Center has a variety of tools and services that can help in times in need. Don't hesitate to reach out.

Stop sexual assault in its tracks

How to recognize and intervene a potentially harmful situation

Campus sexual assault is an uncomfortable topic, but one that must be talked about. Did you know that one in six women have been a victim of attempted or completed rape in her lifetime and 3 percent of men have been a victim of attempted or completed rape in their lifetime? While in college, a young woman's risk increases to one in four chances of being sexually assaulted. This means that someone you may already know or someone you may meet has been a victim of sexual assault.

Sexual assault may consist of sexual harassment, sexual coercion, sexual contact (unwanted fondling/groping) attempted rape and rape. Unfortunately, a victim of sexual assault or rape may often face blame and shaming.

It is never the victim's fault. Ever. Rape and sexual assault are not crimes of passion and love. Rape and sexual assault is about power and control.

There are ways everyone can – and should – help prevent sexual assault or other potentially harmful situations from happening or continuing. Read the tips below to understand how you can utilize bystander intervention to evaluate the situation and respond in a safe way.

How to recognize the signs of a potentially harmful situation

- Body language: Is the potential victim leaning away, pushing the other party away or just appears uncomfortable?
- Raised voices: Do you hear yelling, screaming, banging or other alarming sounds?
- Intoxication: Is the person stumbling, swaying, unable to communicate, being forced to drink, or otherwise unable to consent to what is happening?

- The golden rule: If you placed the person you love most into the potential victim's place, would you intervene? Trust that instinct or gut feeling.

Use the “three ‘D’s” to safely help the victim(s)

DIRECT

Directly intervene by saying or doing something.

Examples:

- “That’s not okay!”
- “Stop doing that!”
- “Are you okay?”
- “Can I help you?”
- Physically separating the people.
- Remove either party from the situation.

DELEGATE

If you don't feel safe or comfortable directly intervening, delegate to someone else.

Examples:

- Police (911)
- Party host

Be aware of the dangers of alcohol

Plan ahead to avoid the serious consequences of drinking

As a freshman in college you may be excited for the school year to begin and yet also feel apprehension about what to expect. There will be many new experiences in your future. With a new sense of independence can come some difficult choices.

One of the many things you will encounter is alcohol. There will be many opportunities for you to drink, and there is a common misperception that for you to have the college “experience” and “fit in” you should drink, despite being underage. Remember that drinking under the age of 21 is illegal and can result in some hefty charges including MIP (Minor in Possession) or fourth-degree felony for those caught providing alcohol to a minor(s). Even if you are underage, you can still receive a fourth-degree felony for providing alcohol to other minors.

Anyone who decides to drink should consider ways to reduce your risk of potentially serious consequences.

- Plan ahead! Set a limit before you start drinking and stick to it.
- Alternate between alcoholic drinks and water in order to stay hydrated and space out your alcohol intake.

- Always have a designated driver. Keep Crimson Cab’s number (575-524-TAXI; free rides for NMSU students with ID) or Project Home’s number (575-524-TAXI; discounted taxi service) in your phone, or plan on registering an account with Uber or Lyft.
- Eat before and while you drink to help slow the absorption of alcohol into your blood stream. Note, however, that eating after drinking will not help you sober up. Only time will sober you up.
- Either avoid playing drinking games or cheat during. Drinking games can lead to drinking a larger amount of alcohol in a shorter amount of time, which could lead to you not realizing how intoxicated you’re becoming.
- Know how much you are drinking: One drink = one 4-ounce glass of wine, one 12-ounce beer, one shot of 80-proof liquor. Mixed drinks may be more than one serving!
- Use Bystander Intervention. If you see a potential harmful situation, like someone putting something in someone else’s drink, either do something about it or let someone know about the situation.

- Don’t drink from punch bowls or pitchers – they are easy to drug, potentially unhygienic, and it is difficult to keep track of how much you are drinking.
- Never hesitate to call for help. If someone is showing signs of alcohol poisoning (shallow breathing, clammy skin, vomiting, blacking out and/or passing out), call 911 immediately. Never try to give the person a cold shower, coffee or allow them to sleep it off. Alcohol may be legal (at least for those who are 21) and it comes in many different flavors, with lots of colors and pretty bottles, but it is still a dangerous drug that you can overdose on, or become addicted to over time.
- Remember that it’s okay to not drink; you can have just as much fun sober!

For more information about the uses, effects and dangers of alcohol, or to learn about alcohol laws and policies, visit wave.nmsu.edu.

DISTRACT

Cause a distraction to diffuse the situation or allow the two parties to be separated.

Examples:

- “Do you need to go to the bathroom?”
- “Your car is getting towed!”
- “You left _____ in the other room.”

- Spill a drink.
- Set off an alarm.
- Honk a car horn.
- Make a scene.
- Pretend like you know the person having the potential harm done to them. You can take it a step further and help change campus norms to reflect the following:
 1. Violence is never okay and will not be tolerated.
 2. Everyone needs to do their part to help.

Here’s how:

- Educate others about bystander intervention.

- Speak out if you hear opposing thoughts.
- Encourage bystander intervention and denounce violence by:
 - Wearing a pin, or button expressing these thoughts.
 - Hanging up a poster at your dorm or office expressing these thoughts.
 - Posting on social media about bystander intervention.

Feel safe on campus

NMSU police department is ready to help students

The NMSU Police Department is a full-service department that handles anything from routine patrols and criminal investigations to victim assistance and reporting assault.

Other services offered by the NMSU Police Department include crisis intervention and followup, and filing financial compensation claims. The department is active on social media, regularly publishing useful information and tips to Facebook and Twitter. Follow at facebook.com/NMSUPolice or @NMSUPolice on Twitter.

ON-CAMPUS SAFETY TIPS

- Use high-quality “U” locks on all bicycles, locking both the frame and front tire to the rack.
- Roll up windows and lock doors on vehicles and campus residences. Do not leave property in plain sight from windows, or anywhere on campus unattended.

- Be aware of potential scams via phone calls or email. Don't give out personal information over the phone unless you are sure of the source of the request.
- When in an interpersonal relationship, remember that “no” means exactly that. If the other person is asleep, intoxicated or drugged, they are incapable of giving consent. Any sexual contact at that point is a crime — no matter what they may have said or done earlier. If you are someone you know is the victim of sexual assault, you can call 1-800-656-4673 to be walked through the process for seeking help.
- If you see someone else in danger, say something, do something and/or call for help. If you see an unsafe condition like a fallen tree limbs or power lines, flooded streets or other hazards, report it promptly.

LAS CRUCES' OLDEST MICROBREWERY

Our selection of hand crafted lagers and ales are produced on premises using the finest grains and hops. We brew small batches of about 200 gallons ensuring that each beer is served at the peak of freshness.

We brew a variety of about 50 different beers.

We usually have 12 beers on tap, including our special root beer brewed in house. Try a Rootbeer Float!
