Medical, surgical, cosmetic dermatology — DERMAGNIFY covers the full range of skin health

DERMAGNIFY aims to provide a comprehensive dermatology experience, including medical, surgical, and cosmetic skin care.

The experience includes complete skin evaluations and individualized treatments to dermatologist-recommended skin care products that are designed to work together to achieve the goal of maintaining the natural function and appearance of a customer's skin.

At DERMAGNIFY, they seek to provide dermatology expertise and skin care professionalism that in turn provides a trusted and welcoming refuge from everyday life.

All skin needs are analyzed and treated at DERMAGNIFY, whether the issue is medical, such as a skin rash or aesthetic, in the cases of wrinkles or dry skin.

Treatments are specifically customized for each patient and can range from surgery to skin rejuvenation with lasers or medical grade skin care products.

The business was founded by Mark A.

Cappel, M.D., who completed his bachelor of science degree in zoology and graduated Phi Beta Kappa at the University of Wisconsin in Madison.

He earned his doctor of medicine and graduated Alpha Omega Alpha at the Pennsylvania State College of Medicine in Hershey.

Following his internship year in internal medicine at the Medical College of Wisconsin in Milwaukee, Cappel completed his dermatology residency at Mayo Clinic in Jacksonville before completing a dermatopathology fellowship at Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota.

His credentials also include having served as a staff member in the department of dermatology at Mayo Clinic for nine years, and a promotion to consultant at Mayo Clinic Florida and assistant professor in the Mayo Clinic College of Medicine.

He has an interest in teaching and education and was previously the dermatology residency program director at Mayo Clinic in Jacksonville.

Cappel has worked across the state, moving to Tampa for three years by joining the Dermatology Associates of Tampa Bay and Gulf Coast Dermatopathology Laboratory.

The opportunity to independently open DERMAGNIFY is something that Cappel is excited about, as he aims to provide a comprehensive dermatology experience, including medical, surgical and cosmetic skin care to the residents of Ponte Vedra Beach.

His years of schooling and research is an example of how much he enjoys learning further about his field.

As a result, he has given numerous dermatology and dermatopathology meeting presentations, both nationally and internationally and authored 45 peer-reviewed medical journal publications on a wide range of topics, which are cited on PubMed.

He is board-certified in Dermatology by the American Board of Dermatology and in Dermatopathology by the American Board of Dermatology and the American Board of Pathology, with expertise in the diagnosis of skin conditions in the clinical and laboratory setting.

In his free time, Cappel enjoys spending time with his family, traveling, fitness and spending time outdoors.

WILD NIGHTS WITH EMILY

"Movie: Wild Nights With Emily" Writer/director Madeleine Olnek's ("Codependent Lesbian Space Alien Seeks Same") 2018 comedy brings to life the lesser-known side of the life of writer Emily Dickinson (played here by "SNL" alum Molly Shannon), one that included a lifelong relationship with neighbor and sister-in-law Susan Gilbert Dickinson (Susan Ziegler, "The Never List"). Amy Seimetz, Brett Gelman and Kevin Seal also star.

"Only Murders in the Building"

The sophomore round of this dramedy picks up in the wake of Arconia Board President Bunny Folger's shocking death and finds Charles, Oliver and Mabel (Steve Martin, Martin Short, Selena Gomez) on a race to unmask her killer — a crime in which the trio becomes implicated, thus making them the subject of a competing podcast. (ORIGINAL)

"Movie: The Unknown Girl"

From Belgian directors Jean-Pierre and Luc Dardenne ("Two Days, One Night") comes this 2016 crime drama about a young doctor (Adèle Haenel, "Love at First Fight") who becomes obsessed with the case of a dead woman when she learns the woman had rung her doorbell shortly before her death. Olivier Bonnaud, Jérémie Renier and Louka Minnella also star.

"Movie: The Princess"

From director Le-Van Kiet ("Furie") comes this actioner that stars Joey King ("The Act") as a strong-willed princess who is locked away in a remote tower of her father's castle after she refuses to marry her cruel suitor. With the scorned sociopath intent on taking her father's throne, the princess must protect her family and save the kingdom. Dominic Cooper and Olga Kurylenko also star. (ORIGINAL)

"Movie: The Man From Toronto"

Checking into the wrong AirBnb proves problematic for a New Yorker (Kevin Hart) when he winds up being mistaken for an international assassin (Woody Harrelson) in this action comedy from director Patrick Hughes ("The Hitman's Bodyguard"). Kaley Cuoco, Ellen Barkin, Jasmine Mathews and Lela Loren are also in the cast. (ORIGINAL)

"Snowflake Mountain"

Pampered young adults are put through their paces at a wilderness survival retreat that has no running water, Wi-Fi or parents to take care of them, in an effort to kickstart them into standing on their own two feet and becoming fully functioning grown-ups in this unscripted series. (ORIGINAL)

"The Future of..."

As technology continues to advance, so will the way we live our daily lives, from raising pets and house plants to what we eat and how we date. That's the subject of this unscripted series that looks at what we should expect from the future and makes surprising predictions about our lives and the lives of generations to come. (ORIGINAL)

"The Upshaws"

This comedy series from creators Wanda Sykes and Regina Hicks returns with 16 episodes for its sophomore round, which continue the adventures of a working-class African American family in Indiana struggling to make it work and make it right without the blueprints to do it. Sykes, Mike Epps, Kim Fields and Jermelle Simon are among cast returnees. (ORIGINAL)

Cooking with the stars: Celebs with kitchen skills

Most people's idea of an actor's life usually involves a world of awards banquets, cocktail parties and personal chefs. Not hovering over a pot of bubbling ragout in a kitchen.

But before these folks became stars, they were struggling thesps who had to find a way to feed themselves. Some may have worked in restaurants or kitchens and picked up a few chops along the way. Others perhaps were raised in a family of foodies and thus had skills from a young age. But all have a love of good food and know how to produce it. Such as the following.

Chrissy Teigen: The co-host of the currently Roku Channel series "Chrissy's Court" has made food her livelihood, with a website (cravingsbychrissyteigen. com) devoted to recipes, cooking videos and selling cookbooks (some of which are her own) and kitchen equipment. She also has cooking in her blood as her mom Pepper is an accomplished Thai chef, as she's demonstrated on her Food Network series "Getting Spicy with Pepper Teigen."

Lady Gaga: You don't grow up in a family of cooks headed by a father who owns an Italian eatery in New York City and not pick up a few tips and tricks. Toward that end, the Grammy- and Oscar-winning artist born Stefani Joanne Angelina Germanotta enjoys making pasta dishes, especially fresh ravioli with fillings from her personal garden.

Stanley Tucci: It should come as no surprise that the host of CNN's food/ travel series "Stanley Tucci: Searching for Italy" and star of the 1996 foodie drama "Big Night" would have culinary knowledge. He's written several cookbooks plus an autobiography "My Life Through Food" and posted a number of Italian cooking videos to YouTube. He's also shown a flair for mixology, mixing up cocktails in videos on social media during lockdown.

Bradley Cooper: That nifty knifework the Oscar-nominated actor displayed in 2015's "Burnt"? That was all Cooper as he undertook a month of culinary training for the role, which also proved instrumental in getting him back into his own kitchen when filming ended. He also has cooking in his background, hailing from an Italian family that cooks and having worked as a prep cook at a New Jersey restaurant.

Eva Longoria: The former "Desperate Housewives" star has been cooking since childhood and considers it the best way to show appreciation to her loved ones. Her specialty is Mexican, which is also her heritage, and she's published a cookbook "Eva's Kitchen: Cooking with Love for Family and Friends."

"At Home With the Gils"

The Gil music family of Brazil is front and center of this documentary series that follows them in their daily lives and at a creative retreat in the countryside near Rio de Janeiro as they prepare for an unprecedented concert that will bring together all generations of the clan on stage for the first time. (ORIGINAL)

"Movie: My Fake Boyfriend"

KEIYNAN Lonsdalf

DYLAN SPROUSE

When a friend (Keiynan Lonsdale) can't stay away from the toxic boyfriend who just dumped him, a couple (Dylan Sprouse, Sarah Hyland) invent a social media heartthrob to divert his attention. The plan appears to work — that is, until the bogus persona goes viral in this romantic comedy from director Rose Troche ("The Safety of Objects"). (ORIGINAL)

"Movie: Jack Ryan: Shadow Recruit"

After becoming the new Captain Kirk of "Star Trek," Chris Pine rebooted another adventure franchise as novelist Tom Clancy's CIA hero, seen here early in his espionage career. Under the tutelage of an agency veteran (Kevin Costner), he tries to thwart a terrorist plot to dismantle the U.S. economy. This 2014 action adventure co-stars Kenneth Branagh — who also directed the film — and Keira Knightley.

"The Terminal List"

Chris Pratt ("Avengers: Endgame") is an executive producer of this psychological thriller series in which he plays James Reece, a Navy SEAL who led a failed mission in Syria that left many of his men dead. Back home in the States, he grapples with PTSD and conflicting memories that cause him to question his culpability and mental fitness. Constance Wu also stars. (ORIGINAL)
