A familiar path: 'Justified' returns to FX with 'City Primeval' sequel

To those who enjoyed the initial drama, a sequel to it is likely to seem quite "Justified."

Timothy Olyphant returns in the further adventures of lawman Raylan Givens as the FX series "Justified: City Primeval" debuts with the first two of its eight episodes Tuesday, July 18. Set 15 years after "Justified" ended, the saga adapts another story by Elmore Leonard ("City Primeval: High Noon in Detroit") and newly factors Givens into it, with the U.S. marshal living in Miami after his time in Kentucky.

A situation that develops in Florida leads him to Detroit and a vicious felon known as the Oklahoma Wildman (played by Boyd Holbrook, previously of "Narcos"), whose lawyer ("King Richard" Oscar nominee Aunjanue Ellis) has her own reasons for wanting to help her client elude the scales of justice.

With Olyphant also an executive producer of the show along with author Leonard's estate, "Justified: City Primeval" includes Adelaide Clemens ("Rectify"), Vondie Curtis-Hall ("The Recruit"), Marin Ireland ("Hell or High Water," 2016), double Tony Award winner Norbert Leo Butz ("The Girl From Plainville"), Ravi Patel ("Animal Control) and Vivian Olyphant – the star's daughter, who plays Givens' offspring – among additional cast members. They're new to the "Justified" world, as is actress Ellis, who felt she couldn't go wrong with material that\ originally came from the mind of Leonard.

"I just had a general familiarity with 'Justified,'" she says. "I knew it was an Elmore Leonard adaptation, and I was interested in that because I'm a big reader. Then, when I started working on this, I watched (the original show) and got to see Tim being 'that guy.' It was one of those things where you feel a character was written for somebody, even if the author did not have that person in mind.

"There was a great singer named Phyllis Hyman, and Duke Ellington's granddaughter says that she believes he wrote his songs for Phyllis Hyman even before she was born," Ellis explains. "There also are acting roles like that, and I just feel that Tim is the person who was meant to walk in these boots."

Much of the appeal for Ellis in playing attorney Carolyn Wilder in "Justified: City Primeval" came from what she defines as "taking that 'Justified' world and putting it inside Detroit, and seeing those worlds collide. (Givens) certainly is a fish out of water there, and I love how Carolyn is very confrontational with him. She says, 'I know how you've been doing things, but you can't do them here ... not in my town, and not with me."

Still, there's room for Carolyn to have her own development arc. "There's the world of justice and the world of law, and sometimes, those don't meet," Ellis reasons. "I think Carolyn is one of those people who feel that justice isn't necessarily found in a courthouse or a legislative building. You have to find it where you can find it, and I think that's what makes her and Raylan kindred spirits. She does things that are necessary, but she still has to find her footing and be true to herself."

Most of Ellis's scenes in "Justified: City Primeval" are with Olyphant, but she also enjoyed sharing on-camera moments with co-star Curtis-Hall ("I just think he's one of the best actors who has ever acted"). For as many strong women as she has portrayed, she found Carolyn a unique role, maintaining that she has little desire "to pull from other parts. Particularly for a woman on television, there's an expectation that you fall in line within particular roles, but I wanted something new and something I had to grasp as I went along."

The making of "Justified: City Primeval" had an alarming interruption when several cars involved in a shootout reached a Chicago location where filming was under way. (Security was enhanced following the incident.) Ellis recalls, with evident relief, that she "had just left to go to another location. I was so upset and so angry, and just scared to death for everybody I worked with. They were literally running for their lives. It was terrifying."

Following her appearances in such other series as "Lovecraft Country," "When They See Us" and "True Blood" – and movies including "Ray," "The Help" and "If Beale Street Could Talk" – Ellis is having a very visible professional year. The existing two seasons of the former AMC drama series "61st Street," in which she appears, have been picked up for upcoming telecast on The CW. She also plays Mama in the film of the stage-musical version of "The Color Purple," slated for release on Christmas Day.

"I like being able to jump into different worlds, not just different characters," Ellis says, "and that's what I appreciate about 'Justified.' There;'s world-building there, and that happens a lot with something that is adapted from a novel, because that's what authors do. They can take the space and time to develop a world."

The Busby quintuplets prepare to become supermodels at the 2nd annual Graeson Bee fashion show – but first, Adam must deliver a miracle as the Busby's oven breaks right before they need to host thanksgiving dinner, all in two new, back-to-back episodes of "Outdaughtered," premiering Tuesday, July 18, on TLC. Catch up with the quints before they return by visiting tlc.com/shows/outdaughtered

Hosted by supermodel, designer, author and entrepreneur Ashley Graham, the 90-minute premiere of this competition series sees eight teams of talented renovators compete to transform a Southern California home into a real-life Barbie Dreamhouse, as "Barbie Dreamhouse Challenge" begins, Sunday, July 16, on HGTV. For a sneak peek of the Dreamhouse pre-renovation, check out: hgtv.com/shows/barbie-dreamhouse-challenge/articles/barbie-dreamhouse-challenge-influencers-sneak-peek

JULY 19 "Documentary: The Deepest Breath"

This premiering documentary follows the story of a champion freediver and expert safety diver seemed destined for one another despite the different paths they took to meet at the pinnacle of the freediving world. It is a look at the thrilling rewards — and inescapable risks — of chasing dreams through the depths of the ocean.

JULY 20 "Supa Team 4"

This animated family series (Originally titled "Mama K's Team 4" or "Mama K's Super 4") tells the story of four teen girls living in the neo-futuristic African city of Lusaka, Zambia, who are recruited by a retired secret agent still committed to saving the world. In their journey from school girls tackling homework to undercover superheroes fending off super villains, they're transformed from a motley crew of friends into Supa Team 4. The series is created by Zambian writer Malenga Mulendema.

"Sweet Magnolias: Season 3"

Following the brawl at Sullivan's, Maddie (JoAnna Garcia Swisher) wrestles with the best way to help Cal (Justin Bruening) and works to clear her own emotional path in Season 3, as Helen (Heather Headley) faces difficult decisions about the men in her life, while Dana Sue (Brooke Elliott) searches for a way to help the community without upending her family. Meanwhile, the identity of the tire slasher sends shockwaves through Serenity, the recall causes unexpected consequences, and there are romantic surprises in every generation.

JULY 21 "Movie: They Cloned Tyrone"

This pulpy new sci-fi mystery caper premieres after being delayed from December. When neighborhood drug dealer Fontaine (John Boyega) is shot dead by a rival (J. Alphonse Nicholson), he is understandably shocked when he wakes up in his bed the next morning, completely unharmed. Determined to figure out exactly how he survived and miraculously recovered, Fontaine, Slick Charles (Jamie Foxx) and Yo-Yo (Teyonah Parris) go hunting for answers and stumble upon a vast government conspiracy.

"Special Ops: Lioness: Season 1" (Paramount+ — Series Premiere, July 23)

Inspired by an actual US Military program, this original espionage thriller follows the life of Joe (Zoe Saldana) while she attempts to balance her personal and professional life as the tip of the CIA's spear in the war on terror. The Lioness Program, overseen by Kaitlyn Meade (Nicole Kidman) and Donald Westfield (Michael Kelly), enlists an aggressive Marine Raider named Cruz (Laysla De Oliveira) to operate undercover alongside Joe among the power brokers of State terrorism in the CIA's efforts to thwart the next 9/11.

tasty iv BY CAROLINE COLLACUTT Fun with food: A&E's latest series highlight twisted and unique eats

This summer, A&E has expanded its "Home.Made.Nation" programming block with a slate of new series, including two new "twisted," food-focused series: "Best in Chow" and "Deliciously Twisted Classics," both having debuted Sunday, July 9, and continuing their run this week.

First, writer-actor-comedian Matt Richards ("Group Therapy") travels the country coast to coast during "Best in Chow," visiting state fairs, food trucks and street festivals along the way as he searches for some of America's wildest foods and most creative cooks. In the series trailer, Richards can be seen enjoying everything from golden brown, savory waffles and colorful pineapple bowls to towering heaps of pasta and delectable, overthe-top desserts, determined all the while to find (and taste) the best of the best and the weirdest of the weird.

Each episode, Richards deploys his optimistic sense of humor, anchoring conversations with the creative chefs behind such wild concoctions as they share what brought their dishes to life.

After a colorful and unique first course, "Deliciously Twisted Classics" airs immediately following "Best in Chow" – "continuing the hunt for outrageous eats," as A&E explains. This new series acts as a celebration of comfort and creativity, as a panel of celebrity chefs and superstar culinary influencers sit down to sample deliciously extravagant spins on some familiar American classics, dishes made by some of the country's top chefs.

The series' first season is set to feature the likes of Aarti Sequeira, winner of "The Next Food Network Star," Season 6, and host of "Aarti Party"; chef, restaurateur and TV personality Gina Neely (of "Down Home with the Neelys"); renowned author of the Southeast Asian cookbook "Lemongrass & Lime," chef Leah Cohen ("Tournament of Champions"); celebrity chef Rocco DiSpirito (formerly of "The Restaurant") and more, all of whom dive into the origin of our favorite "comfort foods" as they taste their modern, innovative counterparts.

Jam-packed with unique flavors, colors, tastes and textures, "Best in Chow" and "Deliciously Twisted Classics" highlight the art of making food fun, with new episodes releasing weekly as part of the "Home.Made.Nation" programming slate, airing Sundays on A&E.

BEST PAUL NEWMAN MOVIES

"Somebody Up There Likes Me" (1956): Newman made a big leap into stardom in the story of boxer Rocky Graziano "The Long, Hot Summer" (1958): An ideally cast Newman plays Ben Quick, a reputed troublemaker who gets a mixed reception in his new locale, in this William Faulkner tale.

"Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" (1958): Newman makes a first-rate Brick to Elizabeth Taylor's Maggie in the Tennessee Williams play.

"Exodus" (1960): Newman impresses as a freedom fighter helping to establish the State of Israel in director Otto Preminger's drama.

"The Hustler" (1961): One of Newman's most memorable roles is "Fast" Eddie Felson, a pool-playing upstart who wants to take on the legendary Minnesota Fats (Jackie Gleason). The film will be presented Tuesday, July 18, on Turner Classic Movies. "Sweet Bird of Youth" (1962): A drifter (Newman) gets involved with a former film star (Geraldine Page) in another Tennessee Williams adaptation.

"The Prize" (1963): Newman displays great humor within a thriller premise in the Irving Wallace story about an unlikely Nobel Peace Prize winner caught up in intrigue while in Sweden for the ceremony. "Hud" (1963): Called "the man with the barbed-wire soul" in ads, Newman's character in this excellent drama is a rancher's (Melvyn Douglas) rebellious, amoral son. "Harper" (1966): Newman's smooth, sly screen image largely was crystallized by this private-eye tale that boasts a great all-star supporting cast.

"Torn Curtain" (1966): This Alfred Hitchcock-directed spy story involves Newman in a brutal kitchen scene. Trust us, you'll know it when you see it.

"Cool Hand Luke" (1967): An outstanding Newman plays an independent-minded convict who shows "a failure to communicate." "Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid" (1969): Newman and Robert Redford had their first teaming as the title outlaws who, at least here, stage robberies with a humorous spirit.

July 16 "Movie: SAS Red Notice"

Tom Buckingham (Sam Heughan), a special forces operator, is travelling from London to Paris to propose to his girlfriend, Dr. Sophie Hart (Hannah John-Kamen). When their train is deep inside the Channel Tunnel, Grace Lewis (Ruby Rose) and her team of heavily armed war criminals seize the train and hold hundreds of passengers hostage. Unarmed and cut off from his counter terror team, Tom is the only hope that Sophie and the other passengers have to make it out alive. Based on the best-selling novel by former SAS operator Andy McNab.

Q: Has "Young Rock" been canceled? -Tom Marcus, via e-mail

A: It has. It took NBC a while to decide after the show's third season ended, but it won't be getting a fourth. The sitcom based on Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson's youth started out as a strong performer in linear ratings, and it even was far-

July 17 "Twilight: The Complete Saga"

Based on the books by Stephenie Meyer, this series of five fantasy films follows the epic love story of human Bella Swan (Kristen Stewart) and vampire Edward Cullen (Robert Pattinson). Set in the small town of Forks, Washington, the film series also stars Taylor Lautner, Ashley Greene, Nikki Reed, Kellan Lutz, Anna Kendrick, Peter Facinelli and Billy Burke.

July 18 "Movie: Till"

This biographical drama film tells the very real story of Mamie Till-Mobley, following her relentless pursuit of justice in honor of her late son, Emmett Till. In this retelling of her "poignant journey of grief turned to action" (per MGM Studios), Danielle Deadwyler portrays Mamie Till-Mobley as she works to expose the racism that prompted her son's murder, fighting to bring all those involved to justice. The film also focuses on her son, Emmett (portrayed by Jalyn Hall), taking the time to show what he was like as a youth and allowing viewers a glimpse into the boy's all-too-short life.

July 21 "Almost Paradise: Season 2"

When hypertension forces DEA agent Alex Walker (Christian Kane) into early retirement, he moves to a small tropical island in the Philippines in this Amazon Freevee series. Despite his best efforts to transition from Jason Bourne to Jimmy Buffett, his friends in the local police pull him back into a world of dangerous people and deadly situations. But the problem is - he likes it. Samantha Richelle and Arthur Acuna also star.

"Young Rock" has aged out of NBC

ing respectably in its second year, likely thanks to the draw that Johnson is generally ... but from that round to the third and ultimately last one, its ratings basically were cut in half, which was enough for the network to make its determination on whether the series would continue. "Young Rock" wasn't the only NBC comedy to experience cancelation in June, since "Grand Crew" also was handed a pink slip at the same time, That series had gotten two seasons, and based on the viewership returns, it can be argued that it made more of an audience impact on the streaming service Peacock than it did on NBC. Q: It's good to see "Nancy Drew" back, but is this really the last season? – Marcie Williams, Bend, Ore.

A: Yes. Production on the fourth and final round of the CW series that's now airing (and will present its finale in mid-August) wrapped up a number of months ago, and the cast and crew members have gone their separate ways. Though a full series commitment hadn't been made at the time of this writing, title star Kennedy Mc-Mann did the pilot for "The Good Lawyer," a proposed ABC spinoff of "The Good Doctor" (the latter show has already aired that episode). And Leah Lewis, who was close friend George to McMann's Nancy Drew, has been cast in CBS' forthcoming "Matlock" reboot that will star Kathy Bates. Q: Catchy Comedy had a marathon of

"Taxi" recently, and when the show started, there was a cabbie character named John – but he disappeared after a while. What happened to him? – Jeffrey Fox, via e-mail

A: The character, who was a college student as well as a taxi driver, was discontinued after the show's first season. Randall Carver, the actor who played John, has reasoned that John and

Tony Danza's Tony Banta were extremely similar ... to the extent that John eventually was written out of the show, without any further mention of him. Carver has continued to act since, in series such as "The Love Boat" and "Malcolm in the Middle," and he appeared in the Oscar-winning 2007 movie "There Will Be Blood."

July 19 "grown-ish: Season 5"

This "Black-ish" spinoff's fifth season follows Andre Johnson Jr., aka Junior (Marcus Scribner), as he takes on his freshman year at Cal U in his big sister, Zoey's, (Yara Shahidi) footsteps. Trevor Jackson, Diggy Simmons, Daniella Perkins, Justine Sky and Tara Raani also star.

"America's Funniest Home Videos: Seasons 20-22"

Alfonso Ribeiro hosts ABC's longest-running prime time entertainment show. Each week, the "AFV" team evaluates thousands of user-submitted home videos to showcase America's real-life funny moments captured on video, before an in-studio audience enjoys the videos along with audiences at home, and votes on the funniest of the week. The lucky winner leaves the studio with a $10,000 prize.

This computer animated Disney Junior series is an adorable and action-packed story about four fierce and furry superhero kittens — Ginny, Sparks, Buddy and Bitsy — who are on a mission to make their town of Kittydale a more caring and "pawesome" place. With plenty of super skills and gadgets at their disposal, the SuperKitties set off to thwart the town's villains' — Cat Burglar, Mr. Puppypaws, Lab Rat and Zsa-Zsa — plans and impart important messages of kindness, empathy, friendship, resilience and problem-solving along the way.

"Hailey's on It!: Season 1, new episodes"

This animated adventure comedy follows Hailey (voiced by Auli'i Cravalho), a risk-averse but resourceful teenager on a mission to complete every item on her long list of challenging — and sometimes impractical — tasks in order to save the world. With her best friend Scott (voiced by Manny Jacinto), Hailey is always encountering new challenges and more opportunities to conquer her fears.
