Owen Wilson and Tom Hiddleston in "Loki"

Beyond time and space: 'Loki' returns with uncontrollable powers

We've all done the time warp and explored the multiverse, but it's high time to sort out the timeline. A brand-new season of "Loki" premieres Friday, Oct. 6, on Disney+. Tom Hiddleston ("The Essex Serpent") returns as the God of Mischief, everyone's favorite troublemaker, Loki, who has developed a mysterious problem this season.

Owen Wilson ("Haunted Mansion," 2023) is back as Mobius M. Mobius, the Time Variance Authority agent tasked with helping Loki right his wrongs across the multiverse. The first season of "Loki" saw the Norse God meet his match in an alternate version of himself. Sophia Di Martino ("The Electrical Life of Louis Wain," 2021) is Sylvie, a variant of Loki who interrupts the Sacred Timeline. After coming together to set things right across space and time, Loki returned to what he thought would be the TVA headquarters he left before his mission, but something still wasn't right.

In the official trailer for the upcoming season, Mobius brings Loki to a repair shop of sorts, manned by TVA repair guy OB, portrayed by Ke Huy Quan ("American Born Chinese"). Before the pair have time to explain what's brought them there, Loki suddenly, uncontrollably disappears in a timeslip, leaving Mobius looking to OB for an answer. "It's impossible to timeslip in the TVA," is all he can say, though they just watched it happen.

"Loki" executive producer Kevin Wright told Entertainment Weekly in September that "[OB's] job is basically every piece of tech, every computer, every thing that is running at the TVA. ... He either designed it or he fixes it and keeps it running." Having recently picked up an Academy Award for Best Supporting Actor in 2022's "Everything Everywhere All At Once," Quan is well suited to help repair another multiverse.

While Quan's character is the latest to join Loki's crew as he chases chaos across the multiverse, several cast members return for the new season, including Gugu Mbatha-Raw ("Surface") as Ravonna Renslayer, an ambitious judge in the TVA who oversees Loki's case. Literally backing up Loki at one point in the season's trailer alongside Mobius, Sylvie and OB is Wunmi Mosaku ("We Own This City") as Hunter B-15. Eugene Cordero ("Star Trek: Lower Decks") returns as Hunter K-5E, former TVA receptionist.

The upcoming seasons also star Neil Ellice ("Halo 4: Forward Unto Dawn") as Hunter D-90, Jonathan Majors ("Creed III," 2023) as He Who Remains and Tara Strong ("Teen Titans Go!") as the voice of Miss Minutes. Rafael Casal ("Blindspotting"), Kate Dickie ("Annika") and Liz Carr ("Silent Witness") all join the cast this season in as-yet-unnamed roles.

Odd couple Mobius and Loki unsurprisingly have different approaches to their world-saving mission spanning space and time. While the former admits in the "Loki" teaser trailer that he prefers his "slow, deliberate, cerebral approach" honed by years in the bureaucracy of the TVA, while the Norse god is "a man of action, which is fine." Unconvincing, given Loki is the source of the destruction that they are trying to stave off.

While Disney has remained characteristically tight-lipped about the new season of "Loki" ahead of its premiere, Mbatha-Raw promised in a December 2022 interview with Entertainment Tonight that fans "are gonna be in for a real treat because the show is bolder and more surreal." She added that the upcoming season "goes to some bigger, bolder places than Season 1, which is really exciting." Wright promised something similar in his September EW interview, saying, "We made a weird show [in Season 1], and people responded to how weird it was ... so, we wanted to push it further."

'The Big Bake' returns with a Halloween-themed season

Dig into some deadly delights as a new episode of "The Big Bake: Halloween" airs Monday, Oct. 9, on Food Network.

The series, hosted by Brad Smith ("Eddsworld"), welcomes returning "Big Bake" champions and veterans, each looking to redeem themselves in this larger-than-life, "Halloween"-themed event.

Food Network describes: "In each episode, three professional baking teams have five hours to design, bake and decorate a grand-scale cake creation based on a particular theme. These bakers need to think big and bold, blowing up their designs to gigantic proportions and thinking outside the (bakery) box."

As "Big Bake" competitions take place throughout the year, this iteration celebrates the spookiest and scariest season of them all, tasking bakers with eye-popping and downright dreary challenges that feature spooky Halloween treats, creepy clown cakes, fa-boo-lous shrieks, scares and costumes galore.

So far this season, the teams have been asked to create cakes of the best "boo-ticians" in town, decorated with their creepy clientele, and then made their way to the carnival, where fun-house screams were on the menu as Smith asked the baking teams to create some spine-chilling desserts. But fear not. The scariest snacks are still to come.

During this upcoming episode, Food Network promises that witches will be the "talk of the town," as a description for the challenge shares that "Brad Smith asks the baking teams to wave their magic whisks to create cakes featuring the queens of Halloween." In the following weeks, the competition continues, as bakers serve some "big bog bakes" with swamp-themed cakes and later tackle their fears by making creations that feature thrill-seeking monsters.

As tension rises and suspense builds, bakers must do their best to impress this season's judges – pastry chef Ron Ben-Israel ("Cake Wars"), corner-back-turned-chef Eddie Jackson ("Out-chef'd") and internet personality/cookbook author Danni Rose ("Danni's Juke Joint Comfort Food Cookbook: Modern-Day Recipes, Ole Skool Flavas," releasing in November 2023) – and avoid elimination, making it to the end of the competition, where the most ambitious (and terrifying) baker will go home with a $10,000 prize.

Jam-packed with creepy confections, taunting treats and bizarre baked goods, new episodes of "The Big Bake: Halloween" air Mondays through October on Food Network.

BEST EDGAR ALLAN POE-INSPIRED MOVIES

Patricia Medina in "Phantom of the Rue Morgue"

"The Tell-Tale Heart" (1953): A real-rarity, this animated, Oscar-nominated version of Poe's short story about a haunted killer is narrated by James Mason, runs less than 10 minutes ... and was given an "X" rating by British film censors.

"Phantom of the Rue Morgue" (1954): The success of "House of Wax" the previous year made Warner Bros. eager to release another thriller in 3D, and Poe's "The Murders in the Rue Morgue" became the source of this melodrama starring Karl Malden as an experiment-immersed professor.

"House of Usher" (1960): "B"-movie legend Roger Corman began a series of Poe-inspired films for American International Pictures by casting genre staple Vincent Price as a member of the allegedly cursed Usher family who tries to ward off a would-be in-law (Mark Damon). A new version of "The Fall of the House of Usher" starts streaming Thursday, Oct. 12, on Netflix.

"The Pit and the Pendulum" (1961): Maybe the best of the Corman-made Poe adaptations, this chiller boasts one of Price's most memorable performances as the deeply troubled owner of a castle where his brother-in-law (John Kerr) gets too inquisitive for his own good.

"The Premature Burial" (1962): An Englishman (Ray Milland) with a continual fear of being buried alive eventually suffers that fate ... only to be saved, setting him on a path of vengeance.

"The Raven" (1963): Corman teamed Price with two other horror-movie legends — Boris Karloff and Peter Lorre — in this saga of battling sorcerers, one of whom (Lorre) has been transformed into the title bird. Notable in the supporting cast: Jack Nicholson as Lorre's son.

"The Haunted Palace" (1963): Price worked with Corman again in this saga of the title palace, with the title supplied by Poe, though the source story actually was written by H.P. Lovecraft.

Q: Was David Eigenberg still playing Steve on “Sex and the City” when he started working on “Chicago Fire”? – Melanie Paul, Tacoma, Wash.

A: In a manner of speaking. “Sex and the City” ended its original six-season HBO run in 2004, with the movie sequels released in

David Eigenberg’s career is still on ‘Fire’

2008 and 2010, and “Chicago Fire” premiered on NBC in 2012. However, Eigenberg has returned on a recurring basis as Steve Brady on Max’s “Sex and the City” continuation series “And Just Like That ...,” with the character’s relationship with Miranda Hobbes (Cynthia Nixon) continuing to endure twists and turns.

The nature of both “Chicago Fire” and “And Just Like That ...” has facilitated Eigenberg being able to do both shows, since they don’t necessarily need all cast members present at any given time. That will be even more the case when “Chicago Fire’s” next season begins, since as a cost-containment measure, all of the Dick Wolf-produced NBC shows will be reducing the number of episodes in which each of the principal cast members appear (in most cases). That would seem to portend less screen time on “Chicago Fire” for Eigenberg overall, though he’ll likely be more prominent in many episodes in which he is seen.

Q: I thought Sarah Drew’s movie “How She Caught a Killer” was supposed to be on in August. Why was it delayed? – Deanne Cramer, via e-mail

A: Presumably, Lifetime had a number of reasons for postponing the film, which was moved to mid-September. The “Grey’s Anatomy” and “Everwood” alum has a loyal following, and moving the film closer to the start of the traditional television season may have been deemed a good decision in terms of also using it as a platform to advertise other Lifetime projects.

Also, Drew had another cable movie debuting around the same time – “Guiding Emily,” which she made for Hallmark Movies & Mysteries, and disclosed after the original date for “Killer” (on which Drew also served as an executive producer) was announced – so there likely was discussion of where to put “Killer” in relation to that. As it turned out, there was only one week between the films when they finally were televised.
