Wrenn Schmidt in "For All Mankind"

Out of this world TV: Season 4 of 'For All Mankind' enters new millennium

Whether it takes "one small step" or "one giant leap" to get to your couch, do it "For All Mankind." The hit Apple TV+ television series "For All Mankind" is back for a fourth season Friday, Nov. 10, after taking a year-and-a-half-long hiatus. With one Primetime Emmy win under its belt already, the sci-fi drama's newest season is comprised of another 10 episodes, thus bringing the total episode count for the series to a whopping 40.

The series first made (gravitational?) waves when it premiered on its home streamer in 2019. Marketed as an alternate version of 1969, in which "the Soviet Union beats the United States to the moon" (per IMDb), the series reimagines history and speculates how this one change in events could have sparked a whole new world order. Largely focused on the political and scientific ramifications of the then-U.S.S.R. making history on the moon, "For All Mankind" Season 1 leaned into the idea of a space race that "continues on for decades with still grander challenges and goals."

With the premiere of Season 2 in February 2021, the astronauts faced an all-new set of challenges that took place more than a decade after the moon landing. Having confronted everything from lunar ice and trespassers to gender debates in Season 1, the next two seasons promised higher stakes and bigger problems. And on this promise it surely delivered.

From natural disasters such as solar storms and generally harsh living conditions to personal qualms ranging from reckless and selfish behavior to ego-based contests and grand political motivations, there has never been a dull moment on the screen — or in the lives of "For All Mankind's" fictionalized astronauts and their families.

One of these astronauts is Edward Baldwin, played by "The Killing's" Joel Kinnaman. The head of the Baldwin family, which has seen some serious struggles throughout the show's three seasons to date, Ed is one of NASA's best astronauts and is rumored to have been based upon real-life Apollo 10 commander Thomas P. Stafford. While Ed has been supported by several family members over the years, including Karen (Shantel VanSanten, "Shooter"), Kelly (Cynthia Wu, "Holiday," 2020) and Shane (played by brothers Teddy and Tait Blum, "Big Little Lies" and "Shooter," respectively), the only confirmed Baldwin returning (other than Ed) is Kelly.

Joining Ed in space and on Earth are returning characters Ellen Wilson (Jodi Balfour, "Quarry"), Margo Madison (Wrenn Schmidt, "Nope," 2022), Danielle Poole (Krys Marshall, "Supergirl"), Helios Aerospace founder Dev Ayesa (Edi Gathegi, "The Blacklist") and Aleida Rosales (Coral Peña, "The Post," 2017).

Viewers who are already familiar with "For All Mankind" and who may be wondering what is to come in the newest season need look no further than the official trailer, as issued by Apple TV+ in mid-September. Time flies in "For All Mankind," and in a move that echoes the near-decade jump from Season 2 into Season 3 in June 2022, the fourth season of the series picks up eight years after the Season 3 finale.

"Rocketing into the new millennium in the eight years since Season 3," reads an Apple TV+ news release from Sept. 13, "Happy Valley has rapidly expanded its footprint on Mars by turning former foes into partners. Now 2003, the focus of the space program has turned to the capture and mining of extremely valuable, mineral-rich asteroids that could change the future of both Earth and Mars."

But Apple is quick to remind viewers of the darkness lurking in space as "simmering tensions between the residents of the now-sprawling international base threaten to undo everything they are working towards."

“The Lady Bird Diaries” (Nov. 13)

Director Dawn Porter fashions this ABC News Studios documentary from 123 hours of Lady Bird Johnson’s personal and revealing audio diary, which she began in 1963, when the assassination of President Kennedy obliged her husband, Lyndon B. Johnson, to take on the “most challenging and demanding job on Earth” as the 36th President of the United States. Though Lady Bird found it distasteful to be called “First Lady,” she used the title to prove herself a savvy political strategist and propel her conservationist ideas into action, preserving natural resources for the American people.

“A Murder at the End of the World” (Nov. 14)

With a new kind of detective at the helm, this FX mystery series follows Gen Z amateur sleuth and tech-savvy hacker Darby Hart (Emma Corrin), who, along with eight other guests, is invited by a reclusive billionaire (Clive Owen) to participate in a retreat at a remote and dazzling location. When one of the other guests is found dead, Darby must use all of her skills to prove it was murder against a tide of competing interests and before the killer takes another life.

“Drive With Swizz Beatz” - Season 1 (Nov. 16)

Swizz Beatz, a hip-hop legend and avid car collector, travels to car-friendly locales with his son, Nasir Dean (a.k.a. Note Marcato), where he explores the local car culture and unites two otherwise separate car clubs through a shared love of all things automotive and an understanding of what it’s like to overcome obstacles solely through willpower.

“The League” (Available Now)

This documentary uses never-before-seen archival footage and interviews to explore the stories of legendary players like Satchel Paige and Buck O’Neil, as well as celebrated Hall of Famers Willie Mays and Hank Aaron who started out in the Negro Leagues. From entrepreneurial titans Cumberland Posey and Gus Greenlee, to Effa Manley, the activist owner of the Newark Eagles and the only woman ever admitted to the National Baseball Hall of Fame, the film explores Black baseball as an economic and social pillar of Black communities and a stage for some of the greatest athletes in the sport.

Santa's (cookie) workshop: Season 7 of 'Christmas Cookie Challenge' pays homage to holiday classics

BY CAROLINE COLLACUTT

It's the season to get baking, and no one knows it better than Food Network. Packed with holiday cheer and tasty treats, an all-new season of "Christmas Cookie Challenge" is now airing on the network.

Hosted by former NFL player, current "Food Network Star" (Season 11), food truck owner and private chef Eddie Jackson, alongside writer, photographer, cookie-making mom and experienced cooking show host, Ree Drummond ("The Pioneer Woman"), this series follows as "confident and daring bakers compete to prove their holiday cookie-making skills," Food Network describes, promising that as four new bakers are introduced each episode, "tough-love judges are on hand to crown the holiday cookie master, [each of whom] will go home with a $10,000 prize!"

From gingerbread to snickerdoodles to swirly-twirly gumdrops, the series whips up cheer and inspires bakers back at home. The competing cookie makers are tasked with fun challenges, like crafting usable gingerbread puppet theaters, decorating snickerdoodles and even paying homage to classic Christmas films such as "Elf" (2003), starring Will Ferrell.

"Four of the finest cookie makers around get inspired by 'the seven levels of the candy cane forest' and 'the sea of swirly-twirly gumdrops,'" Food Network explains, "[creating] cookies that show the parts of Buddy's journey not featured in the movie. When it's over, one 'cotton-headed nunny muggin' will be sent home for the holidays, while the one who decorates the most fantastical journey will win an advantage for the next round."

"Their magical displays will have to incorporate ingredients from Buddy the Elf's favorite meal: maple syrup, chocolate syrup, candy-coated chocolates, chocolate breakfast pastries or cooked spaghetti," they say, encouraging some interesting flavors.

This current season will also feature an all-star episode, set to air Thursday, Nov. 16, on the network. During this "Champions" episode, Jackson and Drummond welcome eight former "Christmas Cookie Challenge" champions back to the kitchen, asking them to prove who is the best of the best.

"This time, the cookie makers are facing challenges so merrily massive that they'll be put into teams of two. First, the bakers must weave magic as they create Christmas cookie quilts. One team will have the rug pulled out from under them as they're eliminated. ... Then, the three remaining teams construct gigantic stadiums worthy of the finest North Pole games that also incorporate ingredients perfect for watching a snow bowl: egg-nog, hot chocolate, apple cider or mulled wine" (per Food Network).

Keep the holidays extra sweet with "Christmas Cookie Challenge," airing new episodes Thursdays on Food Network.

BEST KENNEDY DRAMAS

"PT 109" (1963): John F. Kennedy—who is recalled in the new History documentary series "Kennedy," starting Saturday, Nov. 18—selected Cliff Robertson to play him in this earnest retelling of the then-president's time as a Navy lieutenant.

"The Missiles of October" (1974, TV): William Devane made a major leap toward stardom with his JFK portrayal in this Cuban Missile Crisis drama.

"Kennedy" (1983, TV): Almost a decade after playing JFK in "The Missiles of October," Martin Sheen credibly portrayed JFK in this miniseries.

"Robert Kennedy and His Times" (1985, TV): Brad Davis did a fine job as RFK in a miniseries about the politician's years as attorney general and senator.

"The Kennedys of Massachusetts" (1990, TV): As Joseph and Rose Kennedy, William Petersen and Annette O'Toole led an impressive cast in this miniseries about the entire clan.

"JFK" (1991): Arguably the best-known movie to have John F. Kennedy as its subject, director Oliver Stone's drama also sparked a firestorm with its take on the official account of the assassination.

"JFK: Reckless Youth" (1993, TV): A decade before "Grey's Anatomy," Patrick Dempsey took the challenge of portraying the younger years of the icon-to-be.

"Jackie Bouvier Kennedy Onassis" (2000, TV): Of the actresses who have played the former first lady, Joanne Whalley fared particularly well, with Tim Matheson making a fine JFK.

"Thirteen Days" (2000): The Cuban Missile Crisis also was the focus of this drama, with Bruce Greenwood as JFK in a cast led by Kevin Costner as presidential aide Kenneth O'Donnell.

Jaime Camil from "Lotería Loca"

Q: It's interesting to see Jaime Camil as a game-show host on CBS's "Lotería Loca." Has he ever done a job like that before? – Jennifer Bridge, via e-mail

Jaime Camil is game to host contests

A: In fact, he has. Though the actor arguably is best-known from his 2014-19 run on The CW's "Jane the Virgin," he has done a variety of jobs during his entertainment career, one of which was his hosting the Mexican edition of the game "Le Gran Show" in 2010. Camil also has been a singer, has acted in telenovelas and has done cartoon voice-overs, but he maintains that he particularly enjoys stage work. He put his vocal talents to good use on Broadway as Billy Flynn in "Chicago" in 2016, and "West Side Story" and "Peter Pan" are among other theatrical productions that have featured him.

Q: I saw "The Exorcist" recently on AMC. Was that Linda Blair's first movie? – Don Parks, Fresno, Calif.

A: She had done catalog ads and television commercials, and she had little-seen roles in the 1968-69 NBC soap opera "Hidden Faces" (in which Roy Scheider also was a cast member) and the early-1970s movies "The Way We Live Now" and "The Sporting Club" before she read for director William Friedkin for the role of possessed youngster Regan MacNeil in "The Exorcist." She was selected from a reported field of 600 hopefuls for the part in the horror classic, for which she received an Oscar nomination and a Golden Globe

Award. She played Regan again in the 1977 sequel "Exorcist II: The Heretic." Blair has remained in the public eye, whether in other movies ("Airport 1975," "Hell Night," etc.), television films ("Born Innocent," "Sarah T. – Portrait of a Teenage Alcoholic," etc.) or the occasional stage project ("Grease"). Last year, she was a participant on Fox's "The Masked Singer," but her main activity for some time has been her Linda Blair WorldHeart Foundation that benefits rescue animals.
