PASStA has been a fixture in St. Augustine's art culture for decades

The Professional Artists of St. Augustine, also known as PASStA Fine Arts Gallery, was established in 1982.

Jean Wagner Troemel founded PASStA, the longest continually running art cooperative in St. Augustine, nestled in the Old Town Historic District at 214 Charlotte St.

Troemel's career was long, and her art was varied, often influenced by her travels. Her work is represented in many private and public collections, both nationally and internationally, and she was the recipient of numerous major awards, including being credited with being the founder of the fine arts community in St. Augustine and established PASStA Plus Art Gallery in an effort to provide artists with a professional setting to exhibit and sell their work. She was also the founder of the First Friday Artwalk in St. Augustine.

Many artistic careers were launched and supported through her unwavering support, which continues today through the Jean Wagner Troemel Foundation.

The gallery's mission from the start has always been to showcase local and regional art and to educate and encourage area artists and it has been doing so for decades.

Its process includes artists being juried by a committee and upon approval, displaying their art for sale at the gallery.

Art offered includes a wide array of oil and acrylic paintings, watercolor, jewelry, wood works, ceramics, metal work and photography all on display, as creativity is fostered in every form.

Each month, PASStA features one member artist, giving special attention to them by showcasing their artwork in the gallery center and holding a reception on the first Friday of the month during a special "art walk" night.

The gallery encourages all its member artists to participate in the monthly event, as well as welcoming visitors to view the artwork and enjoy an impressive food display and the sounds of the Flajberries, a local favorite band, who play live every first Friday showcase.

PASStA is an art gallery run by its artist members. As a non-profit art organization, it does not have any employees. Every artist participates in the running and maintenance of the gallery, including working the gallery for at least two days a month. From painting walls, to paying bills, the PASStA artist members are committed to running a first-class gallery.

The board of directors includes president Valarie Pothier-Forrester, vice president Ginny LeJeune, secretary Sheryl Sherwood and marketing director Laura Burgess.

Customers usually come in looking for something to remember a special trip, or to bring home a work from a local artist. They have many customers that return to purchase again from the same artists.

Building relationships between the local community and the artist members is the foundation upon which PASStA was created. Besides encouraging local artists to become members, the gallery also hosts workshops.

Customers feel welcome as soon as they enter the PASStA Fine Art Gallery. The spacious rooms feature multiple artists on the walls, on display tables, and in jewelry counters. The artist member working the gallery is knowledgeable of various art forms and is available to help customers with that perfect piece for their home or a special gift.

"Our gallery features the best of local talent, and we take great pride knowing that many of our customers come back time and again to add to their collection," Valarie Pothier-Forrester commented. "Since the gallery's founding in 1982, our commitment to showcasing local art within our community has helped this gallery continue to grow. In 2023, PASStA Fine Art Gallery has taken two awards; Best of St. Augustine Finalist, and Best of Florida Regional Art Gallery. These awards also demonstrate the commitment the community has to our gallery, and we are grateful."

More information or details of upcoming events for PASStA and its gallery can be found by going to www.pastagalleryart.com or on Facebook and Instagram. The gallery can also be reached by calling 904-824-0251.

“Spellbound” - Season 1, Part 2 (Nov. 20)

When 15-year-old Cece Parker Jones (Hailey Romain) relocates from a small town in the US to France to study at the Paris Opera Ballet School, she's on top of the world. But, her world turns upside-down when she discovers a book of family spells in the back room of her aunt's apothecary. Learning that she is descended from a line of powerful witches called the Wizens — and that her rivals, called the Mystics, are after her magic — Cece must now juggle the pressures of ballet school with her new ability to activate magic.

“My Hero Academia” - Season 6, Part 2 (Nov. 20)

Izuku (Daiki Yamashita) has dreamt of being a hero all his life—a lofty goal for anyone, but especially challenging for a kid with no super-powers. That's right, in a world where 80% of the population has some kind of super-powered “quirk,” Izuku was unlucky enough to be born completely normal. But that's not enough to stop him from enrolling in one of the world's most prestigious hero academies.

“The Last Rider” (Nov. 20)

This documentary explores the heroic true story of American cyclist Greg LeMond, considered to be one of the greatest cyclists of all time, who defied the odds for one of the most triumphant comeback stories in sporting history. The first and only American to win the Tour de France, LeMond came back from the brink of death to beat his famed rivals in the historic and nail-biting race at the 1989 Tour. Featuring exclusive interviews with LeMond and his wife Kathy, along with never-before-seen footage.

“National Lampoon's Christmas Vacation” (Nov. 23)

As the holidays approach, Clark Griswold (Chevy Chase) wants to have a perfect family Christmas, so he pesters his wife, Ellen (Beverly D'Angelo), and children, as he tries to make sure everything is in line, including the tree and decorations. However, things go awry quickly. His hick cousin, Eddie (Randy Quaid), and his family show up unplanned and start living in their camper on the Griswold property. Even worse, Clark's employers renege on the holiday bonus he needs.

The elf has left the shelf – and now he's in the kitchen. Duff Goldman asks the bakers of the Enchanted Cottage to create edible shelves for their Scout Elves to sit upon. To avoid elimination, they must impress the judges with magical, edible snow globes in this all-new episode of "The Elf on the Shelf: Sweet Showdown," airing Sunday, Nov. 19, on Food Network. More information on this brand-new series can be found at foodnetwork.com/fn-dish/shows/the-elf-on-the-shelf-sweet-showdown

Symbols only have meaning because we've given them meaning. ## “Stamped From the Beginning” (Nov. 20)

Dr. Ibram X. Kendi's bestselling book comes to life in this new, hybrid documentary/scripted film. Chronicling the entire story of anti-Black racist ideas and their staggering power over the course of American history, the film uses an innovative animation process that blends live action with the art of the era to illuminate figures and moments both well-known and obscure. Leading female academics and activists guide viewers through the ways racist tropes and imagery were developed and enshrined in American culture.

“Leo” (Nov. 21)

This animated coming-of-age musical comedy is about the last year of elementary school — as seen through the eyes of a class pet. When he learns he only has one year left to live, he plans to escape to experience life on the outside, but instead gets caught up in the problems of his anxious students — including an impossibly mean substitute teacher. It ends up being the strangest but most rewarding bucket list ever.

French food frenzy: Julia Child takes the cake in 'Chopped'

BY CAROLINE COLLACUTT

Sixteen chefs, one iconic kitchen: an all-new season of this fan-favorite cooking competition honors one of the greatest names in cooking, as "Chopped" returns with new Julia Child-inspired episodes. "Chopped: Julia Child's Kitchen" airs new episodes Tuesdays on Food Network.

"Julia Child was a chef, instructor, author and legend! Even today she influences modern chefs to achieve greatness and push themselves to be their best," Food Network recently shared. "In this competition, four Julia Child fans compete in a preliminary battle with baskets inspired by Julia's recipes."

Keeping to the same format as usual "Chopped" seasons, this "Child-ish" competition features three rounds, in which four chefs must use random and often unusual "mystery basket ingredients" to complete a tasty dish. Each round, one chef is eliminated until only two remain, together facing the judges in the final dessert round, where one is finally crowned the winner.

This — "Chopped's" 55th season — will feature a panel of rotating judges, said to include the likes of Scott Conant (chef, host of "24 Hour Restaurant Battle"), Susan Feniger ("Too Hot Tamales"), Amanda Freitag ("Iron Chef America"), Alex Guarnaschelli ("Ciao House"), Nilou Motamed ("Top Chef"), Michael Voltaggio ("Bobby's Triple Threat") and Isabella Rossellini (who stars in "Julia," premiering its second season two days later on Max). Each episode will also see the arrival of four new chefs, with each winner moving on to the tournament's finale, where the final four will fight for a grand prize of $25,000 and a Julia Child-themed dream trip to France.

Upcoming episodes of the series feature bright and bold flavors — some Julia herself would never approve of — as the series' second episode promises that "citrus and a salad are part of the puzzle in the appetizer round, and the three chefs who make it to the entrée round must make use of some unusual powder and fancy mushrooms," while a description for the third episode shares that: "The chefs get an unusual piece of chicken and a potato product that would have made Julia cringe."

However, in a season featuring fish stew, veal, processed cheese and more, host Ted Allen learns that the stinkiest thing of all might just be his cohorts' Julia Child impressions.

As the chefs continue their journeys to France — and practice their accents — "Chopped: Julia Child's Kitchen" premieres an all-new episode, Tuesday, Nov. 21, on Food Network.

BEST TV SERIES FROM MOVIES

BY JAY BOBBIN

Loretta Swit, Wayne Rogers, Alan Alda and Mclean Stevenson in "M*A*S*H"

"Peyton Place" (1965-69, ABC):

Unique scheduling for a prime-time show — with multiple episodes airing weekly for much of its run — was a hallmark of this serialized drama that made stars of Ryan O'Neal and Mia Farrow.

"The Odd Couple" (1970-75, ABC):

Neil Simon's hit play became a popular television vehicle for Tony Randall and Jack Klugman, who reprised the roles of dissimilar roommates Felix and Oscar in other projects later.

"M*A*S*H" (1972-83, CBS): To many, this is the best series adaptation of a feature film to date. With Alan Alda as its lead, the show was brilliantly cast ... but the biggest kudos go to series developers Larry Gelbart and Gene Reynolds, who transferred the irreverent Korean War saga to television without losing its edge.

"The Paper Chase" (1978-79, CBS; 1983-86, Showtime): John Houseman was sterling in re-creating his Oscar-winning role as imperious law professor Charles Kingsfield, but his opposite number had to be effective, as well. James Stephens scored as the successor to the movie's Timothy Bottoms as earnest, eager-to-please law student James Hart.

"Fame" (1982-83, NBC; 1983-87, syndication): All the buoyancy of the 1980 movie about New York's High School for the Performing Arts was retained — along with the title song and several cast members — in the story of students dealing with rites of passage while trying to build music or dance careers for themselves.

"Buffy the Vampire Slayer" (1997-2001, WB; 2001-03, UPN): What had been a modestly successful horror-comedy movie became a cult phenomenon as a series, elevating former soap-opera actress Sarah Michelle Gellar to stardom in the title role.

Suzanne Somers, John Ritter and Joyce DeWitt in “Three's Company”

Q: I enjoyed Suzanne Somers in “Three's Company” and “Step by Step,” but didn't she also star in another series? – Wendy Fine, via e-mail

A: The late actress and business entrepreneur also headlined the syndicated sitcom “She's the Sheriff” for two seasons (1987-89). She did indeed play a Nevada town's sheriff, who assumed the job after the death of its previous occupant, her husband. George Wyner and Pat Carroll were among the other regular cast members on the show, which was developed by producers who also were doing ABC's “Growing Pains” at the same time. Somers also hosted a syndicated talk show during the 1994-95 television season, and when she passed in October, some celebrities who posted tributes to her on social media mentioned the pleasant experiences they said they'd had with Somers on that program.

Q: I know that Mark-Paul Gosselaar has made a lot of series. What was his last one before the one he has now, “Found”? – Matt Slade, Gettysburg, Pa.

A: Before his current NBC show, the actor had a recurring role on ABC's “Will Trent” during its first season, and he also recurred in his original part as Zack Morris in the “Saved by the Bell” revival that Peacock streamed in 2020-21. As for his last full-fledged starring role in a show, though, that was in ABC's “Black-ish” spinoff “Mixed-ish” (2019-21). Gosselaar had quite a few series during the decade that began with 2010, also including “Franklin & Bash” on TNT, “Truth Be Told” on NBC, the Fox shows “Pitch” and “The Passage,” and “Nobodies” on TV Land. He recently said at a fan convention that he was so upset by the relatively short life that the baseball-themed and critically well-received “Pitch” had, he had thought about quitting the entertainment business.
