Julia Roberts in "Leave the World Behind"

Away from it all: Luxury getaway goes south in 'Leave the World Behind'

A family's stay at a luxurious vacation home is unexpectedly extended due to a mysterious apocalypse in the new thriller "Leave the World Behind," premiering Friday, Dec. 8, on Netflix.

Based on the bestselling 2020 novel of the same name by author Rumaan Alam, the adaptation stars Julia Roberts ("Ticket to Paradise," 2022) and Ethan Hawke ("Moon Knight") as married couple Amanda and Clay Sandford, whose family getaway to Long Island is steered far from the rest and relaxation they expected.

After putting off a much-needed break from their busy day-to-day city life, Amanda tells Clay in the official trailer for the film, "I figured if I made the reservation and packed our bags, it would eliminate most of the reasons to say no." Off they go to a sprawling home near the beach with their two children, teenager Archie (Charlie Evans, "Everything's Gonna Be Okay") and their youngest, Rose (Farrah Mackenzie, "United States of Al").

While Amanda and Clay watch on as their children enjoy the pool and they all begin to settle into their temporary home, the peace and quiet begins feeling eerie. The cable and internet are mysteriously out, but the Sandfords try to make the most of it by pulling out games to pass the time. A knock at the door in the dark of night puts them face to face with two strangers in formal wear.

Mahershala Ali ("Swan Song," 2021) is G.H. Scott, the owner of the home, he explains to the bewildered couple blocking his doorway. This fateful introduction deepens the uneasiness that's beginning to build, when Amanda says to G.H. like an accusation, "This is your house?" G.H., joined by his daughter Ruth (Myha'la, "Industry"), face down their guests until they are eventually let into their home.

Widespread blackouts led the Scotts to flee New York City for their Long Island residence, wanting to wait out the outage away from the panic of the city. Relegated to the basement in-law suite by a forcefully skeptical Amanda, the divide between the two families intensifies.

If Amanda is determined not to make any friends in the apocalypse, her efforts are matched only by gruff contractor Danny, portrayed by Kevin Bacon ("City On a Hill"). Holding his shotgun as a warning in the trailer, Danny sternly tells G.H., "I would do anything to protect my family. What you do is your business." A woman desperately clings to the passenger side door as Clay accelerates away, lost in this unfamiliar beach town, leaving the Sandford and Scott families no choice but to rely on each other for the time being.

All they know for certain is that a countrywide cyberattack has caused sweeping power outages along the East Coast. Confirmed with an unsettling "unrecognized emergency warning" blasting bright blue light from the beach home's flat-screen TV, G.H.'s hunch that the seemingly unrelated disasters are connected grows.

"Leave the World Behind" is written and directed by "Mr. Robot" creator Sam Esmail, who spoke with The Hollywood Reporter in October about adapting the novel shortly after it was published during the COVID-19 pandemic. Esmail shared, "It was a crazy time, those early days [of the pandemic], and when I read the book what really resonated for me was this idea that in a moment of crisis, just how easily we could forget our common humanity."

Alam executive produced the film with Tonia Davis ("Rustin," 2023), Daniel M. Stillman ("Eurovision Song Contest: The Story of Fire Saga," 2020), Nick Krishnamurthy and Barack and Michelle Obama ("We the People"). Esmail also shared what it's like to collaborate with the former president and first lady, saying, "They gave notes on everything from the disaster elements to the characters." The director added, "It's a highlight of my career that I got to work with the Obamas. They're some of the most brilliant minds on the planet and I'm really grateful for their involvement."

“The Matrix Resurrections” (Dec. 10)

To find out if his reality is a physical or mental construct, Thomas Anderson, aka Neo (Keanu Reeves), will have to choose to follow the white rabbit once more. If he’s learned anything, it’s that choice, while an illusion, is still the only way out of — or into — the Matrix. Neo already knows what he has to do, but what he doesn’t yet know is that the Matrix is stronger, more secure and far more dangerous than ever before. Carrie-Anne Moss, Yahya Abdul-Mateen II, Neil Patrick Harris and Jessica Henwick.

“Dragons: The Nine Realms” - Season 8 (Dec. 14)

With the dangerous World Serpent Jörmungandr on the loose, Tom (Jeremy Shada) and the Dragon Riders must devise a strategy to protect the realms from the formidable dragon. However, Sledkin (Carrie Keranen) throws a wrench in their plans when she steals Plowhorn from the Riders in relentless pursuit of the Gods Realm and the Dragonsite gem. Faced with the biggest challenge they’ve ever encountered, the team must recruit an army of dragons to fend off Jörmungandr and save the Hidden World.

“Swamp People” - Season 14 (Dec. 14)

As nature exerts its power across all of America and the globe, the swamper of Louisiana face a brand-new challenge. Some five hundred prime gator tags are at stake for next season—but to get them, gator hunters must compete now! It’s renewal time for tags in Louisiana, which are usually granted in five- or ten-year deals. And this year, the large landowners who hold the tags, have made all too clear they’re only willing to work with hunters who land the biggest beasts this year.

“The Retirement Plan” (Dec. 15)

Caught up in a criminal enterprise that puts their lives at risk, Ashley (Ashley Greene) and her young daughter Sarah (Thalia Campbell) turn to the only person who can help — Ashley’s estranged father Matt (Nicolas Cage), currently living the life of a retired beach bum in the Cayman Islands. Soon tracked down on the island by crime boss Donnie (Jackie Earle Haley) and his lieutenant Bobo (Ron Perlman), Ashley, Sarah and Matt become entangled in an increasingly dangerous web, while Ashley quickly learns her father had a secret past that she knew nothing about.

“Under Pressure: The U.S. Women’s World Cup Team” (Dec. 12)

This all-access sports documentary miniseries allows audiences to intimately follow the U.S. Women’s National Team’s players and coaches, and reveal an inside look at the most decorated team in soccer history. Viewers get a first-hand look at the pressure, the euphoria, the joy and the hardships that these world-class athletes experience as they strive to capture their third World Cup title in a row. Issues ranging from injury, criticism and doubt, equal pay, and upholding legacies are all brought to light.

“The Crown” - Season 6, Part 2 (Dec. 14)

A chapter in history comes to a close when Part 2 of this historical drama’s final season makes its debut. In Season 6, Prince William (Ed McVey) tries to integrate back into life at Eton in the wake of his mother’s death as the monarchy has to ride the wave of public opinion. And, as she reaches her Golden Jubilee, the Queen (Imelda Staunton) reflects on the future of the monarchy with the marriage of Charles (Dominic West) and Camilla (Olivia Williams) and the beginnings of a new Royal fairytale in William and Kate (Meg Bellamy). Elizabeth Debicki also stars.

“Chicken Run: Dawn of the Nugget” (Dec. 15)

This sequel to the beloved and highest-grossing stop-motion animated film of all time, “Chicken Run,” makes its debut. Having pulled off a death-defying escape from Tweedy’s farm, Ginger (Thandiwe Newton) has finally found her dream — a peaceful island sanctuary for the whole flock, far from the dangers of the human world. When she and Rocky (Zachary Levi) hatch a little girl called Molly (Bella Ramsey), Ginger’s happy ending seems complete.

“Face to Face with ETA: Conversations with a Terrorist” (Dec. 15)

Hosted by Jordi Évole, this documentary presents an exclusive interview with one of the key figures in the ETA organization: Josu Urrutikoetxea, also known as Josu Ternera. It looks at the terrorist group and some of its more significant moments upon its dissolution in 2018. Almost 50 years after an attack, this conversation helps provide answers to one of the terrorist group’s victims.

Some of the root causes of Alzheimer’s that the dental team can screen and/or treat for are gum disease, unhealthy microbiome, sleep apnea, infected root canals, and mercury fillings. As a ReCode certified dentist, we work closely with Trained Primary Protocol Practitioners to assist in the prevention and reversal of cognitive decline via the Bredesen 7 Protocol.

Dr. Weeks and Dr. Field welcome the opportunity to provide you more information about the ReCode program.

New patients welcome! Please call 285-1990 to schedule an appointment.

Seasonal seasoning: Tilly Ramsay joins 'MasterChef' dad to judge junior holiday competition

You have to whisk it to risk it — and maybe add a little nutmeg for a taste of holiday cheer. Celebrity chef Gordon Ramsay welcomes both his family and yours to spend some time in the kitchen this holiday season, as the all-new “MasterChef Junior: Home for the Holidays” airs a two-part special, taking place Sunday and Monday, Dec. 10 and 11, on Fox.

“Gordon Ramsay welcomes nine young culinary contestants to cook up seasonal delights themed to Christmas, Hanukkah, Kwanzaa, Lunar New Year and more,” a recent news release from the network shared, continuing: “Judges Gordon Ramsay, his daughter Tilly Ramsay, Aarón Sánchez and Daphne Oz will crown a winner, who takes home the ultimate holiday gift: a $25,000 grand prize, a Viking Kitchen package and a one-of-a-kind ‘MasterChef’ snow globe trophy.” In fact, each junior chef who competes will leave with a kitchen-related prize, including a second Viking Kitchen package for the runner-up.

Like its predecessor, “MasterChef Junior,” this iteration will also feature young aspiring cooks — children aged eight to 13 — with each episode putting the heat on these talented junior chefs with a series of challenges.

They’ll compete in skills-based tests, boxes of mystery ingredients, team challenges and elimination rounds, including the “Pressure Test,” in which losing team members must compete against each other to make an impressive dish within a limited time frame.

Once the competition is reduced to its strongest chefs, the remaining few must face off in a three-course cook-off, with all courses equally weighed by judges to determine an overall winner.

It’s a big feat to face one Ramsay for chefs of all ages — let alone two. A world-renowned chef himself, Gordon Ramsay’s daughter, Tilly, was previously a contestant on “Celebrity MasterChef Australia,” proving that talent in the kitchen might just be genetic. The second-generation Ramsay is also set to join the cast as a judge of “MasterChef Junior’s” upcoming ninth season, acting as a reminder of what young chefs can accomplish once they really get cooking.

Bubbling over with family fun and holiday cheer, this seasonal special is sure to give fans a taste of what’s to come in “MasterChef Junior” Season 9. “MasterChef Junior: Home for the Holidays” airs as a two-night event, Dec. 10 and 11, on Fox.

BEST SEAN CONNERY MOVIES

Sean Connery in “Goldfinger”

“Marnie” (1964): In and around his James Bond work, Connery set out to diversify by working with Alfred Hitchcock on this melodrama about a businessman with a strong interest in a troubled employee (Tippi Hedren).

“Goldfinger” (1964): Most Bond purists concur this is the first 007 screen adventure that has it all, including a deftly balanced Connery performance that blends suave charm and rugged action smoothly.

“The Hill” (1965): The long association of Connery and director Sidney Lumet began with this grueling drama of World War II military prisoners forced to do hard labor.

“The Offence” (1973): Connery’s desire to get off the “star” pedestal manifested itself in this gritty police drama, again under Lumet’s direction, about a London police detective whose anger goes too far when he interrogates a suspect.

“Murder on the Orient Express”

(1974): One of many familiar faces in this great staging of the Agatha Christie mystery, Connery makes his presence known as one of the suspects questioned by Hercule Poirot (Albert Finney).

“The Wind and the Lion” (1975):

Connery is superb as a Middle Eastern renegade who invites large-scale trouble by kidnapping an American (Candice Bergen).

“The Man Who Would Be King”

(1975): Originally envisioned for such stars as Clark Gable and Humphrey Bogart, this John Huston-directed Rudyard Kipling adaptation - which Turner Classic Movies shows Saturday, Sept. 8 - was delayed many years, which was great news for Connery and Michael Caine in playing soldiers of fortune in India.

“Robin and Marian” (1976): Being shown by Turner Classic Movies on Saturday, Dec. 16, this wonderfully mature take on the Robin Hood legend cast Connery opposite Audrey Hepburn (who played, of course, his true love Maid Marian).

“Outland” (1981): Pretty much “High Noon” on another planet, this underrated sci-fi tale features Connery as a lawman who targets a sly profiteer (Peter Boyle).

“The Untouchables” (1987): Oscar came calling for Connery, and deservedly so, for his portrayal of a Chicago beat cop whose street smarts go a long way in helping U.S. Treasury man Eliot Ness (Kevin Costner) take down Al Capone (Robert De Niro).

Chevy Chase, David O'Donnell, Howard Hesseman and Morgan Fairchild also star.

“Chicago” (Available Now)

Nightclub sensation Velma (Catherine Zeta-Jones) murders her philandering husband, and Chicago's slickest lawyer, Billy Flynn (Richard Gere), is set to defend her. Q: I've seen the “Godfather” movies many times, but someone told me the first two had been edited into a version that runs chronologically, instead of much of “Part II” being flashbacks. Is that true, and if so, where can I see that version? – Roger Foster, via e-mail

A: Known by several other names in later years, director Francis Ford Coppola's “The Godfather Saga” was televised by NBC in 1977 and merged the first two movies in chronological order, deleting some content that wasn't appropriate for broadcast television, but also adding scenes that hadn't been included in the theatrical releases. In 1992, “The Godfather: Part III” (which was released in 1990) was added to the earlier version to keep the “Saga” complete. The latter edition was made available on VHS tape and laserdisc, but not on DVD, and it's rare to find it now ... and, frankly, anything to play it on. AMC also ran “The

Seeking the ‘Godfather’ version that's hard to find

Godfather Saga” in 2012, to mark the 40th anniversary of the original “Godfather” film. The “Saga” that combines the first two movies has been available for streaming, but it hasn't been released on DVD, Blu-ray or 4K Ultra HD, making it one of the gems in the Paramount Pictures library that will be a very big event if it's ever issued on the currently prominent forms of physical home video.

Q: Will Jesse Spencer return to “Chicago Fire” for Season 12? –

Kelsey Ross, via e-mail

A: It's certainly possible, since the portrayer of Matt Casey already has returned to the NBC drama a couple of times since leaving the show as a full-time cast member. Since Casey ended Season 11 by proposing to paramedic Sylvie Brett (Kara Killmer), that also opens the door to another potential return for him. Spencer has been purposely noncommittal in addressing the possibility, so time will tell how it plays out.
