Sarah Gilman in season 3 of
"CSI: Vegas"

Back to the lab: 'CSI: Vegas' returns to prove one of their own's innocence

When a famed forensics lab drops everything to prove your innocence, your days being held in custody for murder are numbered, right? That's what lead investigator Josh Folsom (Matt Lauria, "Kingdom") is hoping for in the season premiere of "CSI: Vegas," airing Sunday, Feb. 18, on CBS. After Folsom's mother's killer was found dead in last season's finale episode, the investigator was dragged away, suspected to be responsible for the death.

The whodunnit cliffhanger has kept audiences on their toes for months in the extended break between seasons of "CSI: Vegas," affected by the strikes last year. It doesn't seem like the killer's identity and Folsom's fate will be a mystery for very long, per the premiere episode description from CBS, as the new season opens with "the CSI team [combing] through every crumb of forensic evidence to determine his innocence or guilt."

Paula Newsome ("Barry") leads the team as Maxine Roby, head of the crime lab, supported by Mandeep Dhillon ("Avoidance") as investigator Allie Rajan, Ariana Guerra ("Promised Land") as Det. Serena Chavez, Jay Lee ("Looking for Alaska") as investigator Chris Park, Lex Medlin ("Drop Dead Diva") as investigator Beau Finado, Sara Amini ("Lucky Hank") as chief medical examiner Sonya Nikolayevich, Sarah Gilman ("Those Who Can't") as rookie investigator Penny Gill, and reprising her role as investigator Catherine Willows from the hit establishing series "CSI: Crime Scene Investigation," Marg Helgenberger ("All Rise"), the only original series cast member to appear in more than one season of the "Vegas" reboot.

Ahead of her first appearance last season, Helgenberger spoke with Entertainment Weekly about her return to the franchise, praising the new cast.

"They couldn't have been more welcoming, But it was interesting because I had played Catherine Willows for so many years, It's like a part of me," said Helgenberger. "In terms of establishing a camaraderie or an instant chemistry, it was pretty natural, I have to say, and I think it's because I played this character for so long."

Meanwhile, Folsom's fate is in the hands of the CSI team, but it's not just work for some members of the lab. Det. Chavez herself may just be a little too close to Folsom to help build a case for his innocence — the pair have established a romantic relationship when they are off the clock. Complicating matters more, Allie, in addition to being a senior investigator in the lab, is Folsom's ex. Bolstering a former boyfriend's innocence is all in a day's work.

It's no secret that salacious, outlandish cases are part of the DNA of any "CSI" series, and "Vegas" is no exception. The procedural has a habit of using comedy to create some levity over gory crime scenes and graphic medical examinations. Suspicious deaths at a clown hotel, a secret sex dungeon and a masquerade party are just a few examples of the cases that have ended up in the lab over the course of the show's first two seasons, not to mention more than one elaborate frame up. Nothing less could be expected from the crimes of Las Vegas.

"CSI: Vegas" moves from Thursday nights to a coveted Sunday prime time spot on CBS, alongside action drama "The Equalizer," returning for its fourth season, and the brand new series "Tracker," starring Justin Hartley ("This Is Us"). The second season of "CSI: Vegas" upped the episode order from its first season's 10 episodes to a whopping 21 episodes, however this season is back to a tight 10. Many network procedurals have premiered abridged seasons of 10 to 13 episodes given the work stoppage during the writers and screen actors guild strikes.

Tournament of Taste: 'TOC' Season 5 sees biggest champs yet

The fire is on and Fieri is back: Season 5 of "Tournament of Champions" kicks off Sunday, Feb. 18, on Food Network.

"The skills and abilities of 32 of the most talented chefs from the East and West coast, including all four previous champions, will be pushed to the limit," said Food Network of the series. "The pressure is intense, and emotions are high as the elite chefs do not know who their opponents will be and what challenges the randomizer will dish out, getting progressively harder and harder in each round."

As with previous years, the competition features "blind judging by some of the biggest names in the food world," asking this season's chefs to take on eight weeks and 31 challenges worth of head-to-head battles in order to find the next "TOC" champion — a cook who will take home the coveted Tournament of Champions belt and the largest cash prize in the show's history, totaling $150,000.

Fieri himself is incredibly excited for this upcoming round of competition.

"As the wildest, most anticipated culinary competition year after year, you know that we had to go big for Season 5," Fieri said. "So here's the deal. In order to win, you've gotta either be a past champ or take down a champ, as all the winners from previous seasons are back to defend their titles. We're cranking up the already fierce competition with heated culinary rivalries, wild cards and, of course, off-the-charts flavor."

This season, the chef's representing the East Coast are: Eric Adjepong ("Alex vs. America"), Karen Akunowicz ("Guy's Grocery Games: All-Star Invitational"), Kelsey Barnard Clark ("NFL Tailgate Takedown"), Maneet Chauhan (Season 2 champion, "TOC"), Tobias Dorzon ("Guy's Grocery Games"), Tiffani Faison (Season 3 champion, "TOC"), Amanda Freitag ("Chopped After Hours"), Jose Garces ("Iron Chef America"), Stephanie Izard ("Top Chef"), Marc Murphy ("Best.Ever."), Britt Rescigno ("Chopped"), Jonathon Sawyer ("Bobby's Triple Threat") and Dale Talde ("Top Chef Amateurs").

And, from the West Coast, the competitors are: Carlos Anthony ("Cutthroat Kitchen"), Shirley Chung ("Top Chef Amateurs"), Mei Lin (Season 4 champion, "TOC"), Antonia Lofaso ("Top Chef"), Crista Luedtke ("Beat Bobby Flay"), Brian Malarkey ("The Taste"), Shota Nakajima ("Guy's Grocery Games: All-Star Invitational"), Joe Sasto ("Outchefs'd"), Adam Sobel ("Donut Showdown"), Casey Thompson ("Top Chef"), Jet Tila ("Kitchen Lab"), Michael Voltaggio ("Battle of the Brothers"), Brooke Williamson (Season 1 champion, "TOC") and Lee Anne Wong ("Chef's Story").

The kitchen is overflowing with talent, but only one can take home the belt. See who outcooks the rest when "Tournament of Champions" Season 5 begins Sunday, Feb. 18, on Food Network.

BEST JUDY GARLAND MOVIES

Judy Garland in "The Wizard of Oz"

"The Wizard of Oz" (1939): Well, of course. Generations continue to regale in the adventures of Dorothy Gale, Garland's character who is whisked from a Kansas farm — along with Toto, of course — into a magical land where she makes fast friends with the Tin Man, the Scarecrow and the Cowardly Lion (Jack Haley, Ray Bolger, Bert Lahr).

"Babes on Broadway" (1941): One of the best of the variations on the "Let's put on a show!" theme well-covered by Garland and Mickey Rooney, this musical-comedy finds their characters staging a charity benefit.

"For Me and My Gal" (1942): Garland and Gene Kelly are expectedly terrific together as a performing team whose act — and budding romance — may be bashed by wartime obligations.

"Meet Me in St. Louis" (1944): The duet of "Under the Bamboo Tree" by Garland and Margaret O'Brien is an irresistible part of this tale of four sisters who resent their father's job transfer to New York — which means they'll have to move from their beloved St. Louis with him.

"The Harvey Girls" (1946): Musical highlights including "On the Atchison, Topeka and the Santa Fe" help fuel this great Garland musical about several train passengers headed West to open a restaurant. The film is part of a day of Oscar nominees for best original score, Tuesday, Feb. 20, on Turner Classic Movies.

"Easter Parade" (1948): You surely know on which holiday this picture always makes a television appearance. Irving Berlin's score fuels this saga with Garland, Fred Astaire and Ann Miller as performers whose career choices largely are dictated by their romantic ties, past and present.

"In the Good Old Summertime" (1949): The premise of unidentified loves that also has driven "The Shop Around the Corner" and "You've Got Mail" services this great musical, which — as Liza Minnelli points out in "That's Entertainment!" — features her, at a very young age, with her mom Garland in the closing scene.

"Summer Stock" (1950): Reunited with Gene Kelly, Garland is highly enjoyable as a farmer who lends her barn to a theater troupe, with typical MGM-musical romantic complications following in 3 ... 2 ... 1.

"Gay Purr-ee" (1962): The vocals by Garland as Mewsette, a French feline who wants to experience city life in Paris, are key to the success of this animated treat.

Sally Field in “Gidget”

Q: I recently saw the movie “The Way West” on cable, and the opening credits said, “Introducing Sally Field.” Hadn’t she done a TV series before that? – Victor Smith, Orlando, Fla.

A: The then-future Oscar and Primetime Emmy winner had the title role in ABC’s series version

“Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles: Mutant Mayhem” (Feb. 21)

After years of being sheltered from the human world, the Turtle brothers — Donatello (Micah Abbey), Michaelangelo (Shamon Brown Jr.), Leonardo (Nicolas Cantu) and Raphael (Brady Noon) — set out to win the hearts of New Yorkers and be accepted as normal teenagers through heroic acts. Meanwhile, their new friend April O’Neil (Ayo Edebiri) helps them take on a mysterious crime syndicate.

“The Second Best Hospital in the Galaxy” - Season 1 (Feb. 23)

The Second Best Hospital in the Galaxy follows Dr. Sleech (Stephanie Hsu) and Dr. Klak (Keke Palmer) — aliens, best friends and intergalactically renowned surgeons — as they tackle anxiety-eating parasites, illegal time loops and deep-space STIs. When Drs. Sleech and Klak take on a highly dangerous and potentially groundbreaking case, they put existence itself in jeopardy. Although considering their dismal personal lives, oblivion might be an improvement. Kieran Culkin, Sam Smith, Maya Rudolph and Natasha Lyonne also voice star.

“Jenny Slate: Seasoned Professional” (Feb. 23)

Acclaimed actress, comedian, producer and New York Times best-selling author Jenny Slate returns to the screen with her newest stand-up special. The highly anticipated special proves that being brave for love is worth it — even when it comes to pushing out a baby, stalking your therapist, or trusting your partner to not destroy you.

Tracing an award winner’s Field of TV dreams of “Gidget” during the 1965-66 season, and she had a recurring part in the NBC sitcom “Hey, Landlord” early in 1967. “The Way West,” released in the spring of 1967, was Field’s first major movie credit (after an uncredited appearance in the 1962 Disney feature “Moon Pilot”). In fact, 1967 was quite an active year for Field. That fall, she began her three-season run in ABC’s “The Flying Nun,” and she then stayed largely with TV work by upping her drama cred with parts on other series and in TV-movies. However, she also did another sitcom, NBC’s “The Girl With Something Extra” (1973-74). As it happens, that show and “Gidget” are included in a weekend-long Catchy Comedy marathon of Field’s television efforts that continues Sunday, Feb. 18.

Feature-film employment increased for Field after “Stay Hungry” (1976) and the enormously successful “Smokey and the Bandit” (1977), and she stayed principally in that venue until she returned to TV in a recurring role in NBC’s “ER” and a starring part in ABC’s “Brothers & Sisters.” She also was featured later in the Netflix drama “Maniac.”

Q: I enjoyed Barry Manilow’s Christmas special. Will he be doing another special soon? – Kim Bright, via e-mail

A: No plans had been announced for that as of this writing, but the ever-popular music superstar is sure to keep popping up on various programs from time to time, as he did recently on NBC’s “Christmas in Rockefeller Center,” the syndicated “The Kelly Clarkson Show” and ABC’s “The View.” It’s also likely that his “A Very Barry Christmas” special for NBC will get repeats in future holiday seasons.

As Manilow told us at the time of that latter show’s first airing, he basically delivered it ready-made to NBC, since it was a slightly condensed version of the performance he presents in live appearances during the holiday period each year. However, he added his belief that the lighting and extra decor for the TV version made it that much more special.

What's Available NOW On

“Pupstruction” - Season 1, New Episodes (Feb. 21)

This imaginative and vibrant animated series follows the adventures of the Pupstruction team, a hard-working construction crew that includes Phinny, the crew leader, an innovative young corgi; Luna, a comically spontaneous sheepdog; Roxy, a can-do rottweiler; and Tank, a lovable, snack-obsessed mastiff. Although Phinny might be the smallest pup on the crew, he proves that you don't need big paws to have big ideas. Together, the Pupstruction crew uses mud, sweat, drool and plenty of heart to build and create.

“Star Wars: The Bad Batch” - Season 3 (Feb. 21)

The third and final season of this animated series makes its debut. The Batch will have their limits tested in the fight to reunite with Omega (Michelle Ang) as she faces challenges of her own inside a remote Imperial science lab. With the group fractured and facing threats from all directions, they will have to seek out unexpected allies, embark on dangerous missions, and muster everything they have learned to free themselves from the Empire.

“The Space Race” (Available Now)

Weaving together the stories of Black astronauts seeking to break the bonds of social injustice to reach for the stars, including Guion Bluford, Ed Dwight and Charles Bolden, among many others, this film, from directors Diego Hurtado de Mendoza and Lisa Cortés, profiles the pioneering Black pilots, scientists and engineers who joined NASA to serve their country in space, even as their country failed to achieve equality for them back on Earth.

“Genius: MLK/X” (Available Now)

The fourth installment of the “Genius” anthology series, “MLK/X” follows both King and X from their formative years, where they were molded by strong fathers and traumatic injustices, to their rich, parallel stories as they shaped their identities and became the change they wished to see in the world. The ensemble cast includes Kelvin Harrison Jr. as Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Aaron Pierre as Malcolm X, Weruche Opia as Coretta Scott King and Jayme Lawson as Betty Shabazz.
