“The Veil” (April 30)

This FX series explores the surprising and fraught relationship between two women who play a deadly game of truth and lies on the road from Istanbul to Paris and London. One woman (Yumna Marwan, “Little Birds”) has a secret, the other (Elisabeth Moss, “The Handmaid’s Tale”) a mission to reveal it before thousands of lives are lost. In the shadows, mission controllers at the CIA and French DGSE must put differences aside and work together to avert potential disaster.

“Prom Dates” (May 3)

At 13 years old, lifelong best friends Jess (Antonia Gentry, “Ginny & Georgia”) and Hannah (Julia Lester, “High School Musical: The Musical: The Series”) made a pact to have the perfect senior prom. Everything was going according to plan — a perfect theme, a pair of hot dates and outfits to die for — but with only 24 hours to go before the big night, the girls simultaneously break up with their partners and head out on an epic adventure to find some new dates.

“Dinosaur” (Available Now)

Directed by Eric Leighton (“Pocahontas,” 1995) and Ralph Zondag (“The Nightmare Before Christmas,” 1993), this family-friendly film melds live-action and animation, following as a lone Iguanodon egg is adopted by a family of prehistoric lemurs, the baby dinosaur soon named Aladar (voiced by D.B. Sweeney, “The Cutting Edge,” 1992). Later in his life, Aladar must embark on an arduous trek in search of safety after a meteor shower destroys his family’s once-peaceful island, leaving him in need of a suitable home.

“High Hopes” (Available Now)

Together, brothers Salva and Mishka Ashbel run one of the oldest cannabis dispensaries in Hollywood: MMD. Their business attracts a nonstop crop of weed-loving customers, but somehow, their always-stoned crew manages to surf the waves of commerce, serving the best green in the area. Produced by Jimmy Kimmel (“Jimmy Kimmel Live!”), the first season of this reality series follows as the store prepares for the nationwide release of their top-shelf cannabis brand, and for something even more important: a stoner’s holiday, 4.20.

With a pencil and a dream, Walt Disney created a legacy. What started with a sketched drawing of a cartoon mouse soon rocketed the infamous Disney founder to fame, eventually leading to the creation of the beloved character, Mickey Mouse. The story begins as Walt navigates his early days in Hollywood, quickly losing his first successful cartoon character to a powerful middleman. "How Disney Built America" premieres Sunday, April 28, on History, with all episodes streaming online at history.com/shows/how-disney-built-america

Something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue. This week, Jesse Palmer and the bakers celebrate wedding season by taking from the old adage, with each baker using "something borrowed." Then, the bakers put their spin on "something old" — recipes provided by judges Duff Goldman, Kardea Brown and Nancy Fuller. A new episode of "Spring Baking Championship" walks down the aisle Monday, April 29, on Food Network. For some tasty spring-themed recipes, bakers at home can visit foodnetwork.com/shows/spring-baking-championship/recipes

"Fiasco" (April 30)

Raphaël Valandré (Pierre Niney, "Frantz," 2016) is revved up and ready to shoot his directorial debut — a tribute to his grandmother — but when things start to go wrong on set, his dream job turns into a nightmare, which leaves Raphaël to wonder if a member of the team is trying to sabotage his career. Created, written and directed by Igor Gotesman ("Two Is a Family," 2016), this French comedy television series premieres with three episodes, also starring François Civil ("Frank," 2014) and Marie-Christine Barrault ("My Night at Maud's," 1969).

"A Man in Full" (May 2)

When Atlanta real estate mogul Charlie Croker (Jeff Daniels, "American Rust") faces sudden bankruptcy, political and business interests collide as Charlie defends his empire from those attempting to capitalize on his fall from grace. With episodes directed by Regina King ("If Beale Street Could Talk," 2018), this brand-new mini-series also stars L. Warren Young ("The Wonder Years"), Evan Roe ("Madam Secretary"), Shanita Wilburn ("Kemba," 2024) and more.

"Beautiful Rebel" (May 2)

Based on the life of Gianna Nannini (portrayed by Letizia Toni, "Re Minore," 2020), this Italian drama follows a fragment of the life of one of the most incisive and renowned voices in Italian music. It's a story starting from childhood and the roots of her life and career, up to her consecration, passing through a turning point that cuts Gianna's life into two parts, so much so that it is considered her true birth: the year 1983.

"Unfrosted: The Pop-Tart Story" (May 3)

Michigan, 1963. Kellogg's and Post, sworn cereal rivals, race to create a pastry that will change the face of breakfast forever. A tale of ambition, betrayal, sugar and menacing milkmen, this ultimate Pop-Tart story stars writer/director Jerry Seinfeld ("Seinfeld"), alongside Melissa McCarthy ("Tammy," 2014), Jim Gaffigan ("Chappaquiddick," 2017), Amy Schumer ("Trainwreck," 2015), Hugh Grant ("Love Actually," 2003), Max Greenfield ("New Girl"), Christian Slater ("True Romance," 1993) and many more.

Gomez on the go: Selena and BFF Raquelle taste the town in 'Selena + Restaurant'

With six episodes and plenty of good eats, Selena Gomez ("Selena + Chef") takes on a super-size culinary challenge in "Selena + Restaurant," premiering Thursday, May 2, on Food Network.

Leaving her home kitchen behind and taking on the culinary world by storm, superstar multi-hyphenate Selena is ready to take on the professional kitchens of LA's hottest restaurants, accompanied by none other than her lifelong best friend, Raquelle Stevens ("Selena Gomez: My Mind & Me").

As she travels from place to place, Selena's skills will be put to the test by the best in the business, as guest chefs "will teach and test Selena to see how quickly she can learn the ropes with the ultimate goal of creating a dish good enough to make each restaurant's menu," Food Network claims.

During this inaugural season, the "besties" will be joined by the likes of Shirley Chung ("Tournament of Champions"), Stephanie Izard ("Guy's Grocery Games: All-Star Invitational"), Wolfgang Puck ("Food Network Star") and more, with each guest chef also highlighting a charity that is meaningful to them. Better yet, all of the featured non-profits receive a donation to further their cause.

In a series description, the network shared that "Selena + Restaurant" will kick off as Selena and Raquelle visit chef Wolfgang Puck's Beverly Hills restaurant, CUT Steakhouse. "Thrown straight into the fire," they say, "Selena must pass an initial test and master one of Wolfgang's classic dishes before creating her take on a spicy seafood dish in a bid to have it placed on the menu."

The description continues: "Then, it's off to the kitchen of Los Angeles Dumpling Queen Shirley Chung, who welcomes Selena into her restaurant, Ms. Chi, where the two make a fusion version of a beloved dish from Selena's childhood. Selena, Raquelle and Shirley fold dumplings and dance around the kitchen as Selena attempts to deliver a dish good enough to make the menu."

From spotting stars at the Hollywood hotspot Lemon Grove, to chowing down on Texas barbecue at Moo's Craft Barbecue, to savoring soul food at Keith Corbin's Alta, the duo won't stop until their taste buds are fully satiated and their culinary talents are thoroughly honed.

"After cooking mostly virtually from my kitchen with some of the best chefs for the last four years, I was thrilled to step into their world," said Gomez. "You'll have to see if being in person helped my skills at all."

The journey begins, as "Selena + Restaurant" premieres Thursday, May 2, on Food Network.

BEST STEVE MARTIN MOVIES

Steve Martin stars in "The Jerk"

"The Jerk" (1979): Under Carl Reiner's direction, Martin breaks into movie stardom in a big way as a homebound simpleton who inadvertently becomes a worldly tycoon.

"Pennies From Heaven" (1981): Many Martin fans were surprised by the relative darkness of this musical, based in a BBC drama and casting him as a Depression-era peddler of tunes, but it's grown a devoted following.

"Planes, Trains and Automobiles" (1987): Relatively few Thanksgiving movies are classics, but John Hughes' comedy pairing Martin and John Candy is one of them.

"Parenthood" (1989): Less serious than the recent television series that was based on it, director Ron Howard's tale of family relations features Martin as the head of the clan.

"Father of the Bride" (1991): In a well-moderated performance, Martin makes a delightful successor to the original version's Spencer Tracy as a dad who has a hard time embracing his daughter's (Kimberly Williams) impending marriage ... and her fiancé (George Newbern).

"Grand Canyon" (1991): Martin fares well in a change of pace as a deep-thinking Hollywood director whose ruminations on where society is headed prove unfortunately, and quite personally, well-founded.

"HouseSitter" (1992): Martin's facial reactions are everything as he plays a homeowner whose dwelling is invaded secretly by a crasher (Goldie Hawn).

"Cheaper by the Dozen" (2003): Very much in "Father of the Bride" mode, Martin still makes a warm father figure in this remake of the true tale of a large family.

"Shopgirl" (2005): In an adaptation of his novel, Martin is affecting as the wealthy older man who vies with a slacker (Jason Schwartzman) for the heart of said shopgirl (Claire Danes).

As they begin a whirlwind romance, it isn’t long before Hayes’ superstar status poses unavoidable challenges to their relationship.

“Clarkson’s Farm” - Season 3 (May 3, Season Premiere)

Diddy Squat farm is facing some seriously daunting challenges. The crops are failing in the severe hot weather, inflation has driven prices of supplies sky high, dreams for the beloved restaurant are dashed and now, the farm shop also faces closure. Jeremy urgently needs to come up with creative new ways of making ends meet, so he hatches a plan to turn a profit from hundreds of acres of unfarmed land — thick woodland and hedgerows that make up half the land.

“The Beekeeper” (Available Now)

Jason Statham (“Crank,” 2006) stars as Adam Clay, a wronged man who begins a relentless campaign for vengeance following the death of his neighbor (Phylicia Rashad, “Creed”), who killed herself after being scammed and robbed of over $2 million. Adam contacts The Beekeepers for help — a powerful and clandestine organization of connected operatives that he just so happens to be a part of. Jeremy Irons (“Dead Ringers,” 1988), Josh Hutcherson (“The Hunger Games,” 2012), Bobby Naderi (“Under the Shadow”) and Emmy Raver-Lampman (“The Umbrella Academy”) also star.

“Saltburn” (Available Now)

The latest feature written and directed by “Promising Young Woman” (2020) filmmaker Emerald Fennell, this dark and comedic psychological thriller stars Barry Keoghan (“The Banshees of Inisherin,” 2022) and Jacob Elordi (“Euphoria”). The film follows a young, scholarship student at Oxford University, Oliver Quick (Keoghan), is invited to spend his summer at the home of the charming and aristocratic Felix Catton (Elordi): Saltburn, a gorgeous and expansive estate. Drawn deeper into the other boy’s world, Oliver begins a summer that he will never forget.

A Snow job: Why the newswoman left weekend duty

Q: Why did Kate Snow stop anchoring the Sunday edition of “NBC Nightly News”? – Richard Hall, via e-mail

A: The longtime, Emmy-winning NBC News correspondent decided to focus her attention on “NBC News Daily,” the weekday program she co-anchors on both the on-air NBC network and streaming service “NBC

News Now.” She still contributes elsewhere, as with reports on “Dateline NBC” and her digital interview series “The Drink With Kate Snow.” (And yes, she and her guests actually have drinks on it.)

As of earlier this month, Snow’s former role as the Sunday anchor for “NBC Nightly News” has been assumed by Hallie Jackson, NBC News’ senior White House correspondent. She also has a streaming program on NBC News Now, “Hallie Jackson Now.”

Q: Why did Anthony Anderson only stay on the revival of “Law & Order” for one season? – Gary Kaye, via e-mail

A: That evidently was his intention from the start, since he only had a one-year deal to return to the role of Det. Kevin Bernard when executive producer Dick Wolf and NBC brought the original show back. Anderson also had just finished his run on ABC’s “Black-ish,” so together, the programs made for a good number of years to have been doing series television steadily. That doesn’t mean Anderson didn’t do weekly TV work in other places afterward. He also was hosting the latest version of the game show “To Tell the Truth” on ABC, which he did with his “Mama” Doris, and the two of them have been seen together again lately presiding over the Fox contest “We Are Family.” They also documented a trek that they took through Europe together in last year’s E! Entertainment Television series “Trippin’ With Anthony Anderson and Mama Doris.” Of course, the revived “Law & Order” also lost its other cast regular from its earlier incarnation recently when Sam Waterston left the show. His Jack McCoy decided it was time to end his long tenure in the district attorney’s office, and he has been succeeded by the more politically concerned Nicholas Baxter, played by Tony Goldwyn.

What's Available NOW On

“Star Wars: Tales of the Empire” (May 4, Limited Series Premiere)

The force is with Star Wars fans once again. Lucasfilm's new animated follow-up series to “Tales of the Jedi” acts as the second installment of the “Tales” series. This six-episode miniseries adventures “into the fearsome Galactic Empire through the eyes of two warriors on divergent paths, set during different eras” (per Disney+), as Morgan Elsbeth (voiced by Diana Lee Inosanto, “Ahsoka”) has lost everything, and is now heading down a path of vengeance.

“Ahsoka” - Season 1 (Available Now)

After joining the franchise in Season 2 of “The Mandalorian,” Rosario Dawson (“Rent,” 2005) returns to a galaxy far, far away to reprise her role as Ahsoka Tano in this “Mandalorian” spinoff series. Taking place somewhere after the events of 1983’s “Return of the Jedi,” these episodes serve as a continuation of “Star Wars Rebels,” following Tano, a former Jedi Knight, as she investigates galactic threats following the fall of the Empire.

“Obi-Wan Kenobi” - Season 1 (Available Now)

Set a decade after the events of “Revenge of the Sith” (2005), this miniseries picks up as Jedi Master Obi-Wan Kenobi (Ewan McGregor, “Moulin Rouge!,” 2001) begins his journey to rescue the kidnapped Princess Leia (Vivien Lyra Blair, “The Boogeyman,” 2023) from the Galactic Empire. All the while, he is pursued by vengeful Imperial Inquisitors and his former Padawan, who now goes by a different name: Darth Vader (Hayden Christensen, “Jumper,” 2008).

“The Mandalorian” - Season 1-3 (Available Now)

With a stellar cast and three exciting seasons, this “space western” Star Wars spinoff stars Pedro Pascal (“The Last of Us”) as the titular Mandalorian — a lone bounty hunter traveling the outer reaches of the galaxy, far past the reach of the New Republic. As he journeys from planet to planet, the man must protect a “force-sensitive” child, Grogu, from the Imperial forces hunting them down.

Two of my friends recommended Creeks to me and I'm so glad they did. The estimator was friendly, open and honest and gave several options and the installers were courteous, on time and cleaned up the working area. Plus, the system works great.
