SMITH-COTTON

BOYS BASKETBALL

HEAD COACH: Ben Lyles

2021-22 RECORD: 1-24

HIGHLIGHTS: The Tigers picked up their lone win of the campaign by beating Clinton, 60-51.

OUTLOOK: Despite several near victories, including an overtime loss to Versailles at home, the turn of the calendar wasn't kind to Smith-Cotton. Tabbed as new head coach, former Sacred Heart assistant Ben Lyles will need to get the best out of the varsity returners and the younger players who showed some promise on last year's freshman team that went 12-5.

Ayden Perkins weaves between a pair of Boonville defenders in a home game last season.

SMITH-COTTON

GIRLS BASKETBALL

HEAD COACH: Kevin Carr
2021-22 RECORD: 6-17

HIGHLIGHTS: Back-to-back wins in mid-January over Clinton at home and on the road at Center.

OUTLOOK: A one-win team in 2021, Carr's first year saw the offense take a significant step forward. The Lady Tigers, after averaging 27.3 points in 2021, increased that output to 46.4 points. Six-foot forward Bailey Brown is the key departure, but most of the rest of the cast is back including Eliza Cavanagh, who blossomed as her freshman year progressed. Expect an up-tempo attack out of S-C.

Lady Tigers senior Riley Jackson drives to the hoop in a W-K Holiday Classic win.

BOYS WRESTLING

HEAD COACH: Joe Hulsey
HIGHLIGHTS: Smith-Cotton sent multiple representatives from both its programs to the state tournament.

OUTLOOK: Reaching the state finals is always the ultimate goal in wrestling, but the Lady Tigers also made a significant bit of history last season by winning the CMAC Girls Wrestling Championship. Even better, the team's state qualifiers in Lilly Soendker, Jazlyn Smith-Freeman and Jasmine Wolfe return, too. Keaton Belsha (152 pounds) and Josiah Oliver (145) will be among those counter on for the boys' team, which took fifth at last year's CMAC Tournament.

SACRED HEART

HEAD COACH: Steve Goodwin

2021-22 RECORD: 25-5

HIGHLIGHTS: Sacred Heart got the better of Smithton and Lincoln, then topped Salisbury to reach the Class 2 quarterfinals.

OUTLOOK: The graduation of Coen Brown is no small void, but the Gremlins team that essentially returns otherwise intact should be driven to play with him in mind. All-Kaysinger Honorable Mention Tanner Damlo is one of the only seniors, too, while sophomore Grant Goodwin returns after missing most of 2021.

Gremlins senior Tanner Damlo attempts a 3-pointer in a district semifinal at Smithton.

2021-22 RECORD: 13-14

HIGHLIGHTS: The Gremlins took over the Kingsville Tiger Classic early in the year, beating Northwest in the title game.

OUTLOOK: This should be the Gremlins first winning season since winning 20 games in 2018. After taking big steps forward offensively last year and improving by 11 wins, the Lady Gremlins now get a boost from the talent of partnering with Otterville most of 2021.

OUTLOOK: It took four overtimes in districts collectively, but the Bluebirds were postseason darlings and a shining example of the depth of the Kaysinger Conference. HEAD COACH: Mark Swartz

2021-22 RECORD: 12-14

HIGHLIGHTS: The Lady Bluebirds defeated Warsaw 49-34 at home in the Class 3 District 8 Tournament.

OUTLOOK: Desiree Heimshoth is the only player graduating from last year's Cole Camp team that improved by a handful of wins from the year prior, though the first-team All-Conference forward will be missed. Kyla Harms is a standout in a big senior class that will try to jump the team's record over .500.

TIPTON

HEAD COACH: Mike Beeman
2021-22 RECORD: 17-10
HIGHLIGHTS: A three-game winning streak late in the season included wins over Stover and Northwest at the Kaysinger Conference Tournament.

OUTLOOK: It didn't amount to any silverware or a playoff win, but the Cardinals showed promise last season, even in losses like the overtime one to Sacred Heart at the conference tourney. Tipton could be a Kaysinger dark horse after graduating just one player.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

HEAD COACH: Jason Culpepper
2021-22 RECORD: 25-5
HIGHLIGHTS: The Lady

WINDSOR

BOYS BASKETBALL*HEAD COACH:

Chuck Speer

2021-22 RECORD: 10-14

HIGHLIGHTS: The Greyhounds ripped off three wins in a row in mid-January, then several weeks later won 52-49 in overtime at home against Lincoln.

OUTLOOK: The two seniors Windsor graduated were important ones in Dalton and Dylan Witherspoon, but the entire rest of the roster returns. There will be some familiarity in new skipper Chuck Speer, who was successful this fall as first-year head coach of the Greyhounds' football team.

GIRLS BASKETBALLHEAD COACH:

Danielle McCoy

2021-22 RECORD: 10-14

HIGHLIGHTS: A 29-10 victory over Lexington on Dec. 10 ensured that Windsor wouldn't go winless last winter.

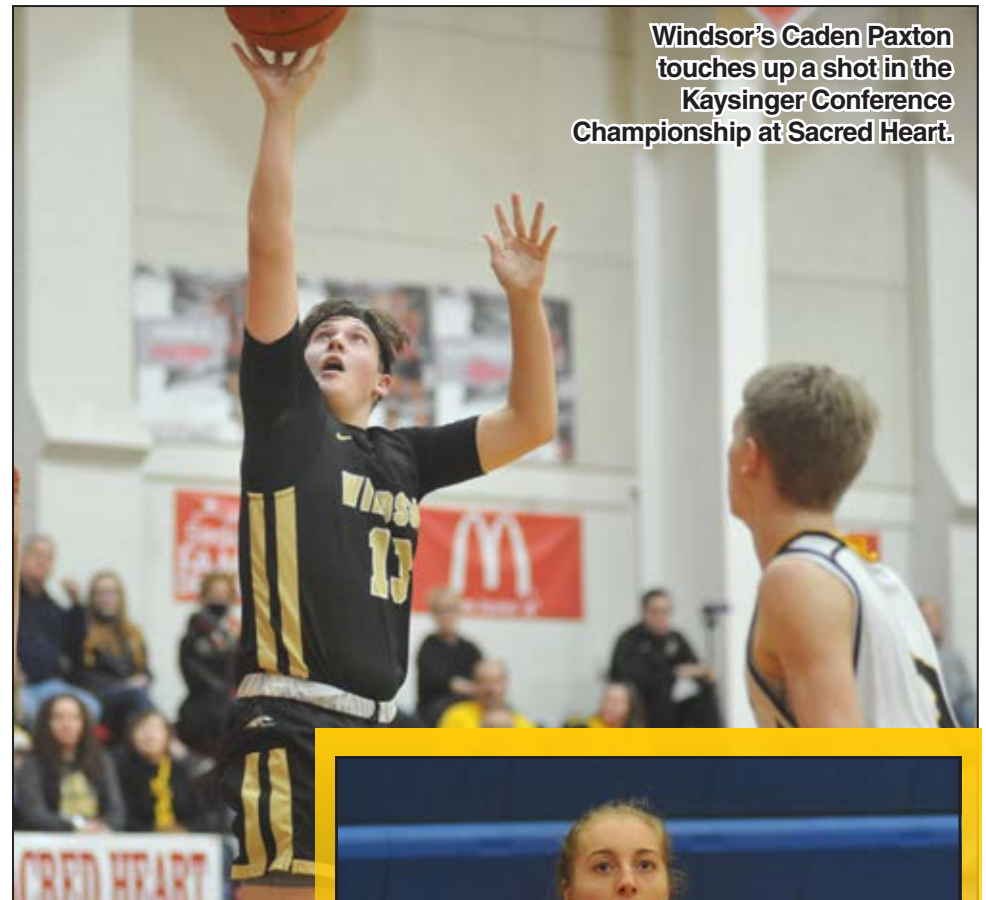

OUTLOOK: A program that won multiple district titles in the last decade looks to get back on the right path under former La Monte standout McCoy, who had been an assistant coach at Smithton. The Lady Greyhounds count senior forward Harlee Arnold among their returners.

NORTHWEST

BOYS BASKETBALL

HEAD COACH: Rick Mills

2021-22 RECORD: 18-10

HIGHLIGHTS: After going over 15 years without a district championship, the Mustangs made it back-to-back titles by beating Leeton in the final, 60-57.

OUTLOOK: Can Northwest avoid a drop-off with the graduation of Pierson Tichenor, Nick Crosswhite and Blaine Kreisel? Left to figure it out will be Missouri Basketball Hall of Fame coach Rick Mills, who won his 800th game last season at, ironically, Leeton.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

HEAD COACH:

Caleb Crooker

2021-22 RECORD: 16-10

HIGHLIGHTS: The Lady Mustangs reeled off three wins in a row near the end of the regular season, then beat Chilhowee in their district opener.

OUTLOOK: With just one player graduated, Crooker arrives from Sacred Heart with plenty to work with, including juniors Karli Smith and Grace Walker. Northwest will look to replicate last year's start that amounted to wins in nine of its first 11 games.

BOYS BASKETBALL

HEAD COACH: Tyler Burke

2021-22 RECORD: 19-7

HIGHLIGHTS: Half of Lincoln's six victories in a row to close the regular season resulted in winning the Kaysinger Conference Tournament.

OUTLOOK: The Cardinals were on the wrong side of a captivating district final with Sacred Heart. But if Lincoln can stay healthy, seniors Connor Lynne and Kyle Eckhoff are among those back for another go-around from a side that should vie for the Kaysinger crown once football season ends.

HIGHLIGHTS: Lincoln put down Sweet Springs in its Class 2 district opener, 43-32.

BOYS BASKETBALL

HEAD COACH:

Tony Pace

2021-22 RECORD: 15-12

HIGHLIGHTS:

The Bulldogs dropped Warsaw, then Tipton to reach the Class 3 District 8 Championship.

OUTLOOK: It took three overtimes before Cole Camp finally overcame Stover in a district final. Despite losing players like Bryton Edinger and Keaton Cochran, senior forward Blaine Broderson and the Bulldogs should still remain formidable.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

HEAD COACH:

Jake Reardon

2021-22 RECORD: 21-6

HIGHLIGHTS:

A seven-game winning streak included a run to the Kaysinger Conference Tournament final.

OUTLOOK: The Lady Bulldogs have graduated great players in volleyball and maintained success, and now will hope to do the same with different nets. Senior Tierra Stark and sophomore Ashlyn Pinzke each return as first-team All-Kaysinger players to smooth another transition.

HEAD COACH:

2021-22 RECORD: 4-18

HIGHLIGHTS: The Tigers won back-to-back games in late January over Ballard and La Monte, then defeated Otterville at the Kaysinger tourney.

OUTLOOK: Cannon has had to replace talent the past two seasons after a string of highly successful seasons. There's continuity with this roster, though, with senior Kamryn Hoos part of a group that will try get its offensive numbers up.

2021-22 RECORD: 6-14

HIGHLIGHTS: Green Ridge won back-to-back games over Bunceton with Prairie Home and Chilhowee last December.

OUTLOOK: Although the Lady Tigers graduated first-team All-Kaysinger pick Sophia Weis, there's reason for optimism as Maria Human returns to a squad that will be boosted by a four-player freshman class.

MENS BASKETBALL

HEAD COACH: Matt Brown

2021-22 RECORD: 15-15

HIGHLIGHTS: Highlights:

State Fair returned from the semester break and scored a 70-65 home win over Three Rivers Community College.

OUTLOOK: Sixth-year head coach Matt Brown's team made nice strides, mostly on the offensive end, to improve upon a 9-15 mark from the year before.

Following several years of decline, the shooting numbers essentially got better across the board. On average, the Roadrunners shot about three fewer 3-pointers per game from 2021-22, but made more, knocking down 38.4%. The team's rebound margin per game went up from 4.5 to 9.5, and its free-throw percentage jumped from 65.7% to 72.3%. Cam Tweedy (Farleigh Dickinson), Yame Butler (Drexel), Jamar Madge Jr. (Lincoln) and Uros Gatic (University of Maritoba) all moved on following the campaign.

It may take some time to size up this year's bunch, and rightly so considering it's an entire new batch of hoopers. Following the first few games, freshmen guards Devon Ellis and Tazir Smith look as if they'll be amongst the leading scorers. Dalton Gayman, Devon Ellis and Elijah Bernstein are also getting a chance to let it fly from the outside.

"We should be able to get up-and-down the floor," Brown said prior to the regular season. "I think we can really pressure the ball this year more with our guards."

WOMENS BASKETBALL

HEAD COACH:

Nicole Collier
2021-22

RECORD: 9-16

HIGHLIGHTS:

State Fair defeated Jefferson College away from home 77-69 on Feb. 5.

OUTLOOK: Despite a disappointing ending to the season that included a postseason defeat to Jefferson College, a team that they had defeated three times previously, the Lady Roadrunners were still miles ahead of where they were during the 2021-22 season when they went 1-18. A mix of freshmen and sophomores helped ensure that the team moved its way back to a respectable level.

How the season ended may have gone differently if not for a premature ending to it for Quincenia Jackson. The team's scoring (16.7 points per game) and rebounding (8.9 rebounds per game) leader, Jackson's injury forced her to miss the final four games of the year, all defeats. The good news? She's working her way back to full force and already had a pair of double-digit scoring games after the first four contests. Sophomores Autumn Wallace, Kayla Dooley and Paige Spencer are also returners who will factor into this year's success.

As far as newcomers, freshman Perryauna Youmans and Bianca Stocks look to be infusions in the backcourt, while a pleasant surprise to go with a 3-1 start has been Detroit native Aiyanna Tansley, who was averaging 17.5 ppg and 9.5 rpg after four games.

MIAA

HIGHLIGHTS: The Mules are coming off a season that led to their first appearance in the MIAA Championships. Central Missouri returns just three contributors in its rotation from a year ago, arriving though redshirt senior Gaven Pinkley, Trey Sides and Mark Mayle. Garrett Luinstra also has significant experience in the rotation, though he missed last year due to injury.

OUTLOOK: The Mules were picked to finish ninth out of 14 teams in both the MIAA Preseason Coaches Poll and MIAA Preseason Media Poll. With a lineup relatively new to UCM, they'll look to get things clicking in hopes of competing within the MIAA.

Central Missouri's Gaven Pinkley looks for an open teammate against Northeastern State in the first round of the MIAA Tournament on March 2, at the Municipal Auditorium in Kansas City.
