WELCOME

Suzy Latore

Hello! I'm Suzy Latore, and I'm proud to be the current Chair of the Greater Warrensburg Area Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors.

I work at the University of Central Missouri as the Manager of the Office of Health Promotion, where we support students in making safer, healthier choices throughout their college careers and beyond.

I grew up in Raytown, Missouri – just up the road – and moved to Warrensburg in 2006. Since then, I've made it my goal to connect with those organizations and entities in the community that are making a positive difference, and this Chamber is at the top of the list.

My goals for this year include supporting Chamber member businesses and organizations by bringing an enhanced awareness of the Chamber's mission and activities to a broader group of Warrensburg citizens, helping to foster collaboration between local entities, and supporting the organization's growth and development through support of Chamber staff and fellow Board members.

It's going to be a great year!

GROWTH & EXPANSION

By Johnson County Economic Development Corporation

Warrensburg is a thriving community of just under 20,000 residents. As the regional hub of a six-county area and home to the University of Central Missouri and nearby Whiteman Air Force Base, Warrensburg is well-positioned for continued economic growth. Warrensburg's centralized location, its affordable business climate and its sophisticated small-town appeal have provided tremendous growth momentum recently.

From small friendly boutiques to large retail stores and unique antique shops, there is something for everyone to enjoy. The Warrensburg business community offers more than 70 restaurants/bars and approximately 100 retailers. Recent additions of new companies such as Marshalls, Hy-Vee, Starbucks, Casey's General Stores, Fazoli's, Factory Connection, Culver's Restaurant, and Firehouse Subs show that businesses and residents alike recognize the wonderful assets Warrensburg has to offer.

This recent growth has also had a positive impact on employment and the number of jobs available in the Warrensburg area, as the heartland work ethic and community pride make it a great place to do business. This has helped to create a diversified job base that provides the area with a secure and growing economy. In the public sector, major employers include nearby Whiteman Air Force Base with more than 8,200 civilian and uniformed personnel on its $381 million-dollar payroll and the University of Central Missouri with more than 1,400 faculty and staff members. Private corporations have also contributed to the area's high employment rate and bright economic outlook. Recently, after fierce competition, Warrensburg was selected for the site of the 23rd Dollar Tree Distribution Center, a $110 million dollar project, which services more than 850 stores across an 11-state region. In the public sector, major employers include nearby Whiteman Air Force Base with over 8,400 civilian and uniformed personnel on its $371 million-dollar payroll, and the University of Central Missouri with over 1,400 faculty and staff members.

When not working, residents enjoy a high quality of life including access to quality education, recreation, shopping, appreciating home values and a low cost of living. Warrensburg boasts the best of rural life: an educated available labor pool, a world-class university, a burgeoning downtown and an engaged community that works hard every day to improve the place they call home. Warrensburg's amenities rival larger cities but with a mid-America, small-town feel. First-rate health care, first-rate infrastructure, and plenty of entertainment and leisure activities allow for all community members to enjoy and thrive in Warrensburg.

The economic development partners of the City of Warrensburg, Warrensburg Main Street, the Greater Warrensburg Area Chamber of Commerce, and the Johnson County Economic Development Corporation dedicate their efforts to preparing and growing the Warrensburg community.

The Warrensburg Chamber's mission is to be a diverse organization dedicated to fostering connections, stimulating business, and cultivating community. The Chamber provides many benefits and services to new and existing businesses and organizations in the greater Warrensburg area. These services include assisting its members in networking and money-saving opportunities.

The Chamber manages a community calendar and the Discover Warrensburg app. It aims to empower the community with opportunities that encourage involvement, promote education, develop leadership and strengthen businesses.

Warrensburg Main Street is a nonprofit organization working to revitalize and preserve downtown. The four points of the Main Street approach work together to build a sustainable and complete community revitalization effort. It works for historic preservation through economic development, believing that preservation happens naturally if businesses are economically stable. It also provides access to national information networks and technical assistance, as well as helping with business retention, expansion, and recruitment.

WARRENSBURG: JUST THE FACTS

No matter where your travel plans take you, Warrensburg, Missouri, is on the way.

Located in the center of the country's heartland, Warrensburg is an hour's drive from Kansas City, four hours from St. Louis, and three hours from Branson. Warrensburg residents are in the enviable position of being able to enjoy the attractions of metropolitan areas and the advantages of small-town life. Unlike purely suburban areas, Warrensburg is a self-contained city with a vibrant employment base, an active cultural scene, and many civic events and activities. Warrensburg serves as the county seat of Johnson County.

Established in 1855, Warrensburg is a third-class city with a council-manager form of government adopted in 1957. Its five council members are elected at large, and one council member is selected by the council to serve as mayor.

The City of Warrensburg provides police, fire, street maintenance, sewer, animal control, building inspection, and planning and zoning services within the city limits, as well as maintaining the Sunset Hill Cemetery. Warrensburg is home to nine beautiful parks covering over 400 acres, including three award-winning parks – Cave Hollow, Grover Memorial and Shepard Park – miles of hiking trails, a skate park, a dog park, eight tennis courts, six playgrounds, seven ballfields, two soccer fields, and Nassif Aquatic Center.

The Warrensburg Community Center features a full-size gymnasium with six basketball goals, a walking track, the Indoor Aquatic Facility, seven meeting rooms, and the award-winning WCC Fitness Center. The Community Center also provides space for the Senior Center, which operates a weekday lunch and home delivery program.

The City operates with approximately 217 full-time, part-time, and seasonal employees.

City Government

The City of Warrensburg has a city council-manager form of government in which an elected city council serves as the city's primary legislative body and appoints a chief executive officer, called a city manager, to oversee day-to-day municipal operations, to draft a budget, and to implement and enforce the council's policy and legislative initiatives.

City council members serve staggered three-year terms with elections held annually in April. Council members may serve a maximum of two consecutive terms before they are term-limited, but they may sit out for a term and run again.

The council is currently composed of Mayor Jim Kushner (term expires 2023), Chairman Pro Tem Tarl Bentley (2024), and council members Casey Lund (2023), Bruce Uhler (2025) and Eddie Osborne (2025).

The city's administrative offices operate out of City Hall at 102 S. Holden St. on the city campus that includes the Municipal Building across the street and Fire Station 1 and the Police Department buildings west of City Hall.

City Manager Danielle Dulin oversees the city's daily operations. Department heads, including the police and fire chiefs, human resources, community development, planning, finance, and public works directors, answer to Dulin.

The city also has numerous boards and commissions composed of volunteer members who report to the council.

Members of the public may attend the city council meetings, generally hosted at 7 p.m. on the second and fourth Mondays of every month at the Warrensburg Municipal Center.

For more information about council meetings or for general information about city operations, call 660-747-9131 or visit www.warrensburg-mo.com.

WHITEMAN AIR FORCE BASE

Sixty miles southeast of Kansas City, nestled among the wooded, rolling hills of west-central Missouri, two miles south of Knob Noster, is the bustling community of Whiteman Air Force Base. Whiteman is the home of the 509th Bomb Wing, proud to serve as host to several associated units. These include the Air Force Reserve 442d Fighter Wing, Missouri Army National Guard 1-135th Assault Helicopter Battalion, Missouri Air National Guard 131st Bomb Wing, and the 20th Attack Squadron.

509th Bomb Wing

The 509th Bomb Wing is part of Air Force Global Strike Command and is the host wing at Whiteman Air Force Base. The Bomb Wing and its fleet of B-2 Spirit bombers serve as part of the Air Force's conventional and strategic combat force. The Bomb Wing can project U.S. airpower anywhere around the world from its home station and employ a wide range of precision-guided munitions. The 509th Bomb Wing comprises approximately 5,600 military members and 2,000 civilian employees. The mission statement of the 509th Bomb Wing is "Execute Nuclear Operations and Global Strike ... Anytime, Anywhere!"

B-2 Spirit Bomber

The B-2 Spirit Bomber is a multi-role bomber capable of delivering both conventional and nuclear munitions. By possessing an extreme unrefueled range and the ability to penetrate deep into enemy airspace undetected and unassisted, the B-2 can place any fixed or movable target at risk and expose the aircraft crew to limited hostilities.

Air Force Reserve's 442d Fighter Wing

The 442d Fighter Wing is comprised of nearly 1,800 members at WAFB and two geographically separated units: the 917th Fighter Group, Barksdale Air Force Base, Louisiana, and the 476th Fighter Group, Moody Air Force Base, Georgia. The wing is responsible for the combat readiness of 48 A-10 Thunderbolt II aircraft – all the A-10s in the Air Force Reserve. The 442nd moved to Whiteman from Richards-Gebaur Air Force Base, Kansas City, Missouri, in June 1994.

A-10 Thunderbolt II

The A-10 Thunderbolt II is a single-seat fighter jet designed to provide close air support for ground forces by attacking tanks and other armored vehicles.

Army National Guard's 1-135th Assault Helicopter Battalion

The Missouri National Guard is the only component of the armed forces that has two missions. The federal mission is to provide federal support when called upon by the president – this could be for overseas contingency operations or national emergencies like Hurricane Katrina. Their mission is to support the governor of Missouri in times of state crisis. The 1-135th Assault Battalion's mission is to conduct attack, reconnaissance, and security operations that complement other maneuver forces. They control AH-64 Apache Helicopters.

AH-64 Apache

corps attack helicopter. The Apache conducts rear, close, and shaping missions, including deep precision strikes. It also conducts distributed operations, precision strikes against relocatable targets, and provides armed reconnaissance when required in day, night, obscured battlefield and adverse weather conditions. The combination of the radars, advanced navigation and avionics suite of the aircraft provide increased situational awareness, lethality and survivability.

Air National Guard's 131st Bomb Wing

In 2008, Whiteman AFB welcomed the Missouri Air National Guard's 131st Bomb Wing into its midst as an associate B-2 unit. In this capacity, Missouri's citizen-airmen work alongside active-duty personnel to maintain and fly the nation's most advanced bomber.

Whiteman Air Force Base History

Whiteman's heritage dates back to 1942, and U.S. Army Air Corps officials selected the current site as the home of Sedalia Army Air Field. Following the war's end, the airfield remained in service as an operational location for Army Air Force C-46 and C-47 transports.

In December 1947, the base was inactivated. However, in 1951, the Strategic Air Command selected the base as a site of one of its new bombardment wings, with both bombers and tankers assigned. In 1952, SAC activated the 340th Bombardment Wing.

In 1955, members of the wing saw the base name change to Whiteman Air Force Base in honor of 2nd Lt. George A. Whiteman. Whiteman was one of the first American airmen killed in combat during World War II when his P-40 fighter, the Lucky Me, was shot down.

In the 1960s, its mission shifted from aircraft to the Minuteman Intercontinental Ballistic Missile. In 1961 officials selected the base to become the command's fourth Minuteman missile wing, the 351st Strategic Missile Wing.

In 1987, Congressman Ike Skelton announced the B-2 Advanced Technology Bomber would be based at Whiteman AFB.

In preparation for a second wing, the Air Force activated the 100th Division in July 1990 to replace the 351st as the base host unit. Thus, in July 1991, the 100th was inactivated, and the 351st again assumed its host unit role. The changes did not end there. On July 31, 1991, President George H.W. Bush signed the historic Strategic Arms Reduction Treaty (START) that called for the dismantling and destruction of the Minuteman II ICBMs.

The end of the Cold War spelled the end of the 351st, and the deactivation of the Minuteman II system began immediately. On January 8, 1993, the wing's first launch control center, India-01, shut down operations. In 1995, the last Minuteman II missile, located at Juliet-03 in Chloe, Johnson County, was removed from its site.

The 509th Bomb Wing traces its historical roots to its World War II ancestor, the 509th Composite Group, which was formed with one mission: to drop the atomic bomb. The group made history on Aug. 6, 1945, when the B-29 Enola Gay, piloted by Paul W. Tibbets Jr., dropped the first atomic bomb on Hiroshima, Japan.

On Sept. 30, 1990, the 509th BW was transferred to Whiteman AFB and, in July 1993, accepted host responsibilities for the base. During this same month, the wing received its first fixed-wing aircraft, a T-38 with a B-2 style paint job.

On Dec. 17, 1993, the 90th anniversary of Orville Wright's historic first successful, controlled, heavier-than-air powered flight at Kitty Hawk, North Carolina, the world's most sophisticated and advanced aircraft, the B-2 Advanced Technology Bomber Spirit of Missouri, arrived at Whiteman AFB.

Members of the Warrensburg Chamber of Commerce Military Affairs Committee continue to support and connect with the Airmen of their sister squadrons, the 509th Operations Support Squadron, 393rd Bomb Squadron, and the 20th Attack Squadron.

EDUCATION

Warrensburg R-VI School District

The Warrensburg School District, founded in 1866, is located in Johnson County, Missouri, just an hour's drive from Kansas City, Missouri. The population within the District is 26,244. The District employs 567 staff members who serve 3,400 PreK-12th grade students on eight campuses. Over 65% of the District's teachers hold advanced degrees, averaging 12.8 years of classroom experience. The average student-to-classroom-teacher ratio is 17 to 1, and Warrensburg R-VI District is fully accredited by the State Board of Education.

With aspiring Purple Star Schools, the District has dedicated liaisons to support our military families and students in each school. These liaisons support relocation, deployment, loss, academic planning, and eligibility to participate in extracurricular activities.

Warrensburg is a 1-to-1

technology school district. Students in PreK through fifth grade receive an iPad, sixth through eighth grade students receive a Chromebook, and high school students are issued laptops. Two Technology Specialists are available to assist students and teachers with technology integration. The District also employs instructional coaches at each building to work specifically with staff to enhance instruction and student learning.

The District has four elementary schools housing PreK-5th grade students, including pre-school, early childhood special education, full-day kindergarten, and before and after-school child care programs. Each elementary school has a media center and offers art, music, and physical education by fully certified staff members and services for students with special needs. Staff supporting the education process in each building include a principal, assistant principal, school nurse, social worker, counselor, ors, and title teachers at each elementary. As students move to the middle school level, students have opportunities to participate in band, sports, and numerous after-school clubs.

High school students can take advantage of the A+ program opportunities, dual credit, Project Lead the Way classes, advanced placement classes in various subjects, and courses in robotics, biomedicine, and broadcasting. Students can participate in the University of Central Missouri Innovation Track, earning college credit by attending classes on campus or online. Numerous extra and intra-curricular activities are also available to encourage students to participate fully in their high school experience.

Preparing Johnson County students and adults for rewarding careers is possible through the Warrensburg Area Career Center. The Center offers programs in technology information management, computer programming, nursing, automobile mechanics, agriculture, building trades, office technology, and cosmetology.

Reese Educational Center provides opportunities for sophomore through senior students to earn credits toward graduation in an alternative setting. These students also participate in service-learning programs combining an academic curriculum with meaningful community service. The Tiger's Den, supplying items such as food and clothing for students in need, is another example of our students' work to give back.

Through the years, the city of Warrensburg and the surrounding areas have been great supporters of the District. Their support has allowed facility additions and improvements, including classrooms at several buildings and a Warrensburg Activities Complex. These partnerships and the patron support of the school district make Warrensburg a great place to raise a family.

University of Central Missouri

The University of Central Missouri has helped students achieve success through affordable access to high-quality education for over 150 years. online. With an innovative Success Advising Center, Career and Life Design Center, expert tutoring for 100+ courses, free counseling and mental health services, and the only accredited Counseling Center at a Missouri public institution, student support is one of the university's highest priorities.

Low Tuition Rates

With tuition lower than most Missouri colleges and the national average, UCM believes everyone deserves affordable access to a high-quality education. Plus, 94% of UCM undergraduates receive financial aid. UCM has been recognized by the student finance bureau LendEDU for having one of the lowest national student debt numbers and was named one of America's Top Colleges by Forbes Magazine.

UCM's signature Red and Black Scholarship provides students with more money so they can focus on their future and graduate with less debt. This automatic, merit-based scholarship allows students to earn up to full tuition and fees. UCM also has test-optional admission and no application fee.

High-Quality Academics

With an 18:1 student-faculty ratio, students receive 1:1 attention from world-class faculty members who get to know them by name and genuinely care about their success. From Aviation and Cybersecurity to Education and Nursing, UCM professors provide educational opportunities that enhance students' skills and help them discover their career potential.

All programs at UCM are accredited by the Higher Learning Commission, a member of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools. UCM is consistently ranked as a top college by U.S. News & World Report and the Princeton Review, and 95% of UCM graduates launch their careers or continue their education within six months of graduation.

Big Experiences

Students learn outside the classroom with 185+ student organizations, 30 intramural sports, 27 Greek letter organizations and 17 NCAA Division-II athletic teams. UCM also offers 60+ study abroad options and is one of the few universities in the United States to offer study abroad scholarships and grants.

Unique facilities include Pertle Springs, a 300-acre recreational and biological research area featuring the Earl Keth Memorial Golf Course and the Audrey J. Walton Clubhouse; the Max B. Swisher Skyhaven Airport, the only university-owned airport in the state, which serves the university and Warrensburg; the Missouri Safety Center; and public broadcasting station KMOS-TV. Also included are the University Farms; the main campus with a blend of historic and state-of-the-art buildings, 10 residence halls, Audrey J. Walton Stadium at Vernon Kennedy Field, the Elliott Student Union and the Multipurpose Building. Serving as a cultural hub in central Missouri, the university provides abundant opportunities to attend events and exhibitions of the fine and performing arts.

The university's facilities also include the James C. Kirkpatrick Library and the Student Recreation and Wellness Center. The adjacent Morrow-Garrison complex serves state needs for programs offered by UCM's School of Nutrition, Kinesiology and Psychological Sciences.

Military Friendly

UCM has earned the 2022-23 Military Friendly School designation. The university's Office of Military and Veteran Services helps active-duty military members and veterans make a smooth transition from military life to college life. The Military and Veterans Success Center provides dedicated staff, a computer lab and a place to study and connect with fellow military-affiliated students. The university also offers a Military Tuition Package.

Culture of Service

As a major employer, UCM supports a large segment of the local economy and also enriches the social, recreational and cultural environment. Equally important are the students, faculty members and employees who make significant civic contributions and are involved in many community organizations and projects. This is in addition to the many civic and economic contributions UCM graduates make every day, from Warrensburg to across the globe, having benefited from their university education and experiences.

By pairing ambitions with meaningful opportunities and superior support, UCM provides students with valuable degrees and the experience needed for long-term success.

HISTORY & HERITAGE

Warrensburg's exciting future remains anchored to its colorful western frontier past. The town's history dates to 1833 when Martin Warren, an American Revolutionary War soldier and blacksmith, arrived from Kentucky and settled along the Osage Indian Trail at College and Gay streets.

In 1834, the County of Johnson was designated, and the town of Columbus was the center of county government until 1836. In 1838, a group of early Missouri leaders, including Daniel Morgan Boone, son of Daniel Boone, chose the site for the county courthouse in the growing community that was to become the City of Warrensburg.

The county court commissioned the building of the courthouse in that same year, and it took four years to complete. Incorporation as a city came in 1855, and the railroad arrived July 4, 1864, after it had stopped at Sedalia during the Civil War. A thriving new commercial district sprouted along the tracks, five blocks southeast of the original town (or town square), and nearby sandstone quarries helped spur growth.

State and local officials, members of the Warrensburg Chamber of Commerce, and community supporters gather Oct. 27, 2022, to celebrate the 30-year anniversary of the Depot Renovation.

The Barlow & Sanderson Overland Mail company started here. Established by Vermont men Jared L. Sanderson and Bradley Barlow during the Civil War, the Barlow-Sanderson Overland Mail Company first carried the mail and operated a stage line between Sedalia and Warrensburg, Missouri. By 1863, was also operating a line from Kansas City, Missouri, to Fort Scott, Kansas. In 1866, they began to expand westward and transferred their headquarters from Kansas City to Junction City, Colorado. By 1867, the two entrepreneurs had established a route from Missouri to California over the Santa Fe Trail and changed the name to the Barlow and Sanderson Company.

One of the city parks, located in the historic area, has been restored and is today named Blind Boone Park. The completed restoration includes a gazebo for public musical events, a picnic area, and a statue of Blind Boone. John William "Blind" Boone (May 17, 1864 – Oct. 4, 1927) was a highly successful American pianist and composer of ragtime music, giving over 7,200 concerts in North America. The JCHS is also hoping to restore the Old Davis Store, established in 1895, and is located across the street from the Old Courthouse and the only historic commercial building left in the area.

Old Drum, a hound dog, was shot dead in 1869 by Samuel "Dick" Ferguson, nephew and ward of Leonidas Hornsby, an irate neighbor who thought Drum had been killing his sheep and is one of the most celebrated figures from Warrensburg's past. When U.S. Senator-to-be George Graham Vest delivered his eulogy to the dog in 1870 in a Johnson County courtroom, he had no idea his words would make him famous. His words, coining the phrase "Man's best friend is his dog," quickly won him fame across Missouri and beyond.

Vest made the speech while arguing in court on behalf of Charles Burden, whose favorite dog was shot by the ward of Leonidas Hornsby. Burden sued and the case eventually wound up in the Missouri Supreme Court, where the plaintiff was awarded $50.

The trial advanced Vest's political career, and in 1958, his "Tribute to a Dog" was cast in bronze beneath the statue of Old Drum on the courthouse lawn. Vest's eulogy has won world fame and has been cited as one of the greatest speeches given during the 19th century. The story of Old Drum is known and loved the world over.

Preserving our past and sharing this with our community is a prime objective for the volunteer-based Johnson County Missouri Historical Society and sister organization, The West Central Missouri Genealogical Society, both supported by the generosity of donors and its members.

THE ORIGIN OF MAN'S BEST FRIEND

By George Graham Vest, 1870

"Gentlemen of the jury: The best friend a man has in this world may turn against him and become his enemy. His son or daughter that he has reared with loving care may prove ungrateful. Those who are nearest and dearest to us, those whom we trust with our happiness and our good name, may become traitors to their faith.

The money that a man has, he may lose. It flies away from him, perhaps when he needs it the most. A man's reputation may be sacrificed in a moment of ill considered action. The people who are prone to fall on their knees to do us honor when success is with us may be the first to throw the stone of malice when failure settles its cloud upon our heads.

The one absolutely unselfish friend that a man can have in this selfish world, the one that never deserts him, and the one that never proves ungrateful or treacherous, is his dog."

"Gentlemen of the jury: A man's dog stands by him in prosperity and in poverty, in health and in sickness. He will sleep on the cold ground, when the wintry winds blow and the snow drives fiercely, if only he may be near his master's side. He will kiss the hand that has no food to offer, he will lick the wounds and sores that come in encounters with the roughness of the world. He guards the sleep of his pauper master as if he were a prince.

Marshall was named the 2022 Old Drum Ambassador during BurgFest in October 2022.

When all other friends desert, he remains. When riches take wings and reputation falls to pieces, he is as constant in his love as the sun in its journey through the heavens.

If fortune drives the master forth an outcast in the world, friendless and homeless, the faithful dog asks no higher privilege than that of accompanying him to guard against danger, to fight against his enemies, and when the last scene of all comes, and death takes the master in its embrace and his body is laid away in the cold ground, no matter if all other friends pursue their way, there by his graveside will the noble dog be found, his head between his paws, his eyes sad but open in alert watchfulness, faithful and true even to death."

The Johnson County Historic Complex on the west side of town is home to several unique structures. The historic 1838 courthouse is one of a few examples of Federal-style architecture west of the Mississippi River. This stucco-covered brick building was restored to its former beauty during the early 1960s. The courthouse has been the scene of a pre-civil war murder, a daring raid to steal/preserve the county records throughout the war between states, and the Old Drum Trial in 1870. The defense's closing argument was a moving speech about the dedication and loyalty of dogs and is said to be the inspiration for the phrase, "A dog is a man's best friend."

Other buildings on the property include the Miller Smiser Heritage Library (built in 1982 to exhibit a collection of materials concerning county history, family genealogy, and newspapers); the Zinn and Leland Culp Building (farm machinery and household artifacts illustrating the agricultural roots of the area), and the One Room School (built in 1911 and moved from Elm, Missouri to the Historical Society grounds in 1995). JOIN THE CHAMBER

The Greater Warrensburg Area Chamber of Commerce is a diverse membership-based organization dedicated to fostering connections, stimulating business, and cultivating community. We are proud to be a leader in the community and continue to strive to help our members thrive, whether they are business owners or young professionals, non-profit leaders or civic members. A national survey by The Schapiro Group reveals that being active in a local chamber of commerce is an effective business strategy. Here are the benefits and a few ways to be involved in our Chamber of Commerce!

- Participate in Mix, Mingle & Manifest events: Our members share their stories, promote their business to the community and, at the same time, give fellow Chamber members priceless networking opportunities.
- Learn from our Chamber University/Information Sessions: Much-desired education about using social media and other marketing must-haves, especially for our small and medium-sized member businesses.
- Attend Ribbon Cuttings: We love to welcome our newest members, celebrate their new staff and services, and recognize accomplishments of all kinds by inviting the community into our members' businesses.
- Come to the Legislative Lunch and Community Update: Our members hear directly from state elected officials about legislation impacting them and from the leaders of the City of Warrensburg, Johnson County, Warrensburg R-VI School District, Western Missouri Medical Center, and the University of Central Missouri.

- Attend our Candidate Forums: We make sure our Chamber members' concerns are included in the state chamber's work on behalf of all of Missouri, and host candidate forums to provide constituents the opportunity to hear from candidates for elected office.
- Place your swag in our welcome bags: Throughout the year, we get our members' information in front of new military members arriving at Whiteman Air Force Base and new teachers in the Warrensburg School District.
- Download the Discover Warrensburg app: This data-rich app features our members and includes a community calendar (scan the QR code on this page).
- Use money-saving Chamber benefits, including health and auto insurance, office product discounts, bulk mail rates, UPS discount, and reduced Constant Contact rates.
- Participate in Old Drum Discounts and gift certificate programs.
- Get to know other members by joining a committee: Our Business & Community Relations, Military Affairs, Young Professional, Women in Networking, Member Relations, and Marketing committees are the perfect way to get acquainted and make a difference.

Chamber Events

- Breakfasts, Luncheons & After Hours: Opportunities to not only network but get updates on community news and more.
- Ribbon Cuttings: Celebrate with our new members, as well as members who've relocated, started a new service or welcomed a new team member.
- Come Sip Shop: Shop 'n sip in some of our favorite downtown businesses.
- Love What's Local: Foodie February, Clean the Burg, Small Business Saturday, Old Drum Dog Days of Summer Sale.
- Candidate Forums: Listen from candidates and learn about current ballot issues.
- Annual Awards & Social: A fun event where the Chamber recognizes businesses, organizations, and individuals for their achievements.
- Annual Classic Golf Tournament: Our major fundraiser of the year.
- Get the Red Out Street Fair: A celebration of both UCM and the community as a whole.
- Holiday Parade: A community-led effort to get you in the holiday spirit.
- Father Christmas Arriving on the Amtrak: Fun for kids of all ages!
