YOUR LAND AND FARM EXPERTS!

Morgan Co-62.41 Acres - $205,000

This is a wonderful hunting and recreational tract north of Stover but only a few minutes from Florence, Mo. Great timber hasn't seen a chain saw in a long time, so some good marketable timber to be harvested. Deer is everywhere here, this is where they come to bed, agriculture fields to the east, west and north makes it a deer's bedroom. I jumped up 15-20 deer out walking the property. It has a wet weather creek along the front on Ehlers rd and comes really close to Gabriel Creek on the west side, so animals have plenty of water. A good place to make a RV or cabin site along Ehlers Rd with electric and high-speed internet from CO-Mo. There is a trail in place along top of the ridge running north to south and will be another one added from Ehlers Rd to the west to intersect with the other trail. Already surveyed recently and pins and laths are in place. I killed a 165 class buck a few years ago just a few miles from here, so I know this has some good hunting potential. The 40 acres to the north are also available if someone needs over 100 acres for a hunting place, see that listing of ours as well. Agent is also owner of this tract and is a licensed real estate agent. Call Mike Stoner for more information at 573-774-9775 Cell
Also, a great place to build that new home with a great view to the west over the fields and creek.

Morgan Co-40 Acres - $149,500

This is a beautiful 40-acre tract in northern Morgan county just south of Florence Mo. It's just been recently surveyed and has Co-Mo high speed internet and electric. Absolutely full of deer, the area around it is agriculture fields and they come here to bed. I jumped 15-20 deer out while on the property. It has Gabriel creek on the west side and a wet weather creek on the east side for water for the wildlife. Big mature timber on the tract that has not been cut in years. There is a main trail running from Ehlers rd up through the big flat top ridge to the south. Lots of road frontage on this tract. This area is known for some good hunting I would rank this tract as well as the 62-acre tract we have for sale next to this as one of the best I have come across for a long time. There are deer trails all over the place. There will also be some very good turkey hunting on it. Agent is a licensed real estate agent and is also the owner. Would also make a beautiful new home site. Contact Mike Stoner at 573-774-9775 Cell

Benton Co-2 Bedroom Cottage

Lake view remodeled home only a few years ago. 2-bedroom cottage within a stone's throw of Lake of the Ozarks. Great place to enjoy the lake and the year around lake view. Has an oversized deck and one can sit and watch the sun go down across the lake. 2 car covered car port included. House is quaint and has that rustic feel to it. It comes with a shared dock. Within walking distance to Ricks Oar House restaurant and marina. Perfect time to buy now just before the summer fun. Call Mike Stoner at 573-774-9775
